spegby

The three Questions

OF

Free Iustification.
Christian Liberty.
The use of the Law.

Explicated in a briefe
Comment on St. PAVL

to the Galatians, from the 16.ver. of the second Chapter, to the 26.of the third.

By SAM. TOR'S HELL Pastor of Bunbury in Chesbire.

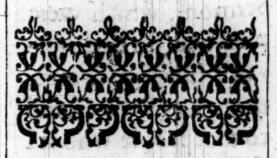

The sayeau was wisers, The und perpanuling.

pho chites. Bafil bom. 29, adu Ca um. S. Trin.

LONDON

Printed by I.B. for H. Overton, and are to be foldat his ship in Popes-bead-Aller, at the entring into Lumbardstreet: 1632:

The right VVorShipful, the MASTER, the WARDENS, and the rest of the Company of HABERDASHERS in London.

Is not cuflome but a right, that challenges the Dedication; They are A 4 Ser-

Sermons, which were preached, in that Interim while I was yours, though at London, and to that people whom I still equally both love and honour, and who at that time owned my Preac ings, yet after your choyce had separated mee from them to a remoter Countrey, and greater task, Their defire first cald it to the Presse; but'tis atrodden Complement to pleade Importunity; nor doe I love it, but must

The Bpiftle

must freely confesse, That it is not onely by enforcement that I am abroad. Every one that vouchsafes to bestow his eye so meanely, may reade, and with welcome. Nor would I beg acceptance from Censure; let men verdict as they please : It were Pride, and Selfefeeking to crouch unto opinion. My intendments are but to doe service to my great Master, and them that are his, The Humble; and there-therefore from him onely aromy expectations. If God might have honour, and Gods people benefit, harshest Centure shold not discourage meeting publishing this, or more.

The Epiftle

I affect not their Niceneffe, that will bee their owne Closes, and Cabinet up their owne labours. If wee have but one Talent, it must bee put unto the Banke; God endures not the Napkin. Let Dedicatory.

Let God & the Church have our Studies, if we be conscionable, wee cannot lose by our fweat. The Subject of this discourse cannotbe unusefull, the frame is but rude, lintended not ornament; much ornament becomes nota Sermon: That Trumpet of the Gospell, the learned Paul, determins to know nothing among his Corinths, fave Iefus Christ, and him crucified. But what ere it is, I have made it you-s, as a testimony of those reipeas i beare you, and how iuftly I owe them, upon Bonds not few, nor ordinary. The Lord adde unto whathe hath bestowed upon you, and make you answerable to your wonted goodnesse; It is the prayer of

Dedicatory.

Your fervant in the businesse of God,

SAM. TORSHEL

Bunbary

he or oney Faite.

OF IVSTIFI-CATION BY EALT HOUSE

HE Questions of Free luftifieation; of our Christian Liber:

ty, and of the use of the Lare, are agitated of late, not without much heat, while one fide care full, the other fide fearful of good works, doe both strive for Christ, and miffake each others grounds grounds. They are untoward names wherewith Christians brand one the other: while one is called a Legalift, another pointed at for an Aptinomift, and this man repayes the former, with the hateful name of Insticiary; peevish expreffions of weake minds; Can we not dispute unlesse we contend ? It were a prefumption to endevour a reconcilement, unfit for my few years, and not much fit for this place. I shall onely fay fo much as may best fuit for popular Sermons, for an audiéce not nicely curious.

If we begin an analyfe at this chapter, there are two parts.

I. The continuation of the

Gal. 2.

the Apostles narration, where hee relates two passed Acts:

1. That at Ierufalem, with the Apostles, from the first, to the eleventh verse.

2. That at Antioch, with Peter; In which,

t. The sum of the whole businesse; vers. 11.

a. The particulars of the feverall passages, they, these:

1. W hat Peter did, v.12.

2. The confequent of that error, verf. 13.

3. Pauls following reprehension: In which wee have.

way of an interrogation, to presse it therby more closely.

2. The matter of it;
B2 That

That is double:

Hypothesis, that those present Gentiles ought not in that to have ludaized, which he proves from Peters owne contrary sact, versita.

That the Gentiles ought not at all to feeke righteoufnelle from the law:

This,

the commonfact of all the Apostles, verf. 15.
Wee who are lever by nature, &c. If any might looke for righteousnesse from the tousnesse from the having privilege above bove all other people;

for we are borne lewes,
born to the righteoufnesse of the Law; wee have the Fathers, the Covenant, the Promises; and are not finners of the Gentiles; alieni federis, strangers from the Covenant, as they are; yet we know that a man cannot be justified by the Law.

the general doctrine of Infiniteation; uerf. 16.

II. The fecond part, is, the Returne of the Apostles speech to the Galatians: wherein

1. Hee layes downe the doctrine of free Iuitification, the maine Argument o his Epistle, vers.

B₃ ment

16. For this verse is both the close of the former, and beginning of this part, by an artfull, and almost unperceived transition, passing from one to the other.

2. He proves it by severall arguments, which take up the rest of this Chapter, and eighteene verses of the next.

3. He makes use of it by deduction of some consequents from the 19, verse of the third Chapter, and so following.

I shall goe on in an easie method, and follow Paul in his; therfore I lay downe for the ground of my following discourse, this ge-

nerall

nerall Doctrine:

the workes of the Law, but by the Faith of lefus Christ.
This truth I shall, first, explicate; secondly, confirme; thirdly, apply which being done, we shall somewhat comprehend those controverted tenents.

The explication is in this 16. verse; Knowing, that is, Wee doe know: white, for in its But that we may take the explication more full, we will observe those particulars which the verse affords us; they are these:

1. What lustification is.

2 The exclusion of falle causes of it.

3. The true meritorious cause.

B 4

4.Te

Explicat,

4. The meanes of appli-Cation at sem a tan'T

Concerning the field, that we may take the whole hature ofit, we will fee, in LoWbat befrice is sole 20 3. What is tuffification.

I. Concerningo Wiffice; Thus : Inflice, on righteenf. neffe, is a perfect conformity, or agreement with the Divine Law & which admitsa double name ...

I. Legall, which is that righteoulnes or conformi. ty to Gods Law which is inherent in our felyesanis flice of workes; and it is either,

1. A inflice of obedience in doing all, in leaving undone nothing. Or, IT on.

on, in enduring the penalty for default of obedience, you was in your

- 2. Evangelicall, which is that righteousnesse or conformity to Divine law, not inherent in our felves, butbeing in another, is reckoned ours. A suffice of faith.
- 2. Concerning Instification therein, i. Of the Name

- 2. Of the Thing. For one gives light to the o. ther.
- 1. Of the name so the word wififice is not of ancient ufe, as not being lound in old Latin Authors, but fignifies to make one just. Now a man may be made jud soul

r. B

1 . By infusion, when an habituall quality of Iustice is wrought any way in any person. So was Adam just, God made man righteous, but they (ought out many inventiens, Eccles.7. 29. So are regenerate Christians just, being fanctified, having grace infused. This the Schoole cals formall righteoufnesse, and the corrupter Schoolemen fay, that Chriflian righteoufnes is fuch, fo in them, as whiteneffe is in a wal Inherent; and that a man is in this fenfe lufti. fiedt But the sense is different from our usual acception, and therefore, by Plea: that is, when being accused, he is Iudicial.

ly acquitted; when his Iuflice being questioned, is cleared. Such formes wee have in our usual speaking; I'll make him a knave, whe we mean to convict a man; or, I'll make him an honest man, when wee meane to cleare him. So the word is ufed, Efa.5.23. Woe to them which instifie the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousnesse of the righteous from him. Nor that our undue praises can make a wicked man just, nor that our unjust slanders can make a good man unrighteous. Take the sense but in one other expression; we fay, when a Judge condemnes a malefactor, the law will justifie him; not that that the law doth make the ludge juft, but doch approve and justifie the fentence that he gives: This is themore proper fense. Aud thus much of the game

2. Of the Thing it lelfe:

herein,

i. The nature of it.

2. The Degrees.

3. The Kinds

1. The nature of it; this, It is the declaring or approving one Iuft, when fuspect; and accused. So we gatherit, Deut. 25.1. The matter of Inflification, is Iuflice, which muff be beforethis, in nature, as the ground. The forme, is the pleading of fuch a justice. Then it is little differenced from Plea, or Apology

2. The degrees, are

I. In regard of marter full; or incomplete, to which referre luftification by comparison.

Vniverfal, which we call Indification of the perfon; or particular, which we cal, Indification of the cause.

2. In regard of forme:

both by affertion and demonstration.

2. In colour, or in truth:

3. The kinds are,

i Of one inherently just:
here Justification is made,
either by pleading the act committed, no fault; or if a fault, not committed.
This is to bee justified by a righterighteoufnes of ones own. by declaring the party cleare the acculation falle. It is of use, and onely in the Court of man: lerem, 26.

15,16.

2. Of fuch as are not inherently just : here Iustification is by confessing the fault done, and by pleading fatisfaction. For fatisfaction, and Non-commission, are alike equall in Inflice. Now fatisfaction may bee made legally in a mans owne person, or Evangelia cally, by another, a Surery. These things in the generall premised, we proceed to the other particulars to be explicated, where wee fhall apply what hath been laid.

The

The fe cond is the Exclufron of falle causes; A man is not justified by the works of the Law. The whole law is here meant, therefore the morall too. The Papifts have an untoward conceit of a double merit, whereby they would bring in works. Take what they fay, plainly and briefly : There is a Merit of congruence: It is the doing of that worke which is good in it felfe, and though it deservedly merit not, yet being good, there is a congruence or fimesse that God should reward it, hee being also good, and a lover of good, where he fees it : So that if a man, meerely naturall, do fay a Maffe, give an Almes, or the like, there is a fitnes, or congruence to reward, There is a merit also of condignity, which is a just deferving upon the former merit. A man by doing a good worke, deferves by Congruence, though he be yet natural, that God shold give him grace, and having grace, now hee justly deferves, becaule Grana gratum facit, and being graci ous in Gods eve, God must needs reward him, This is all, and all is nothing enmming under this firiday clusion, with the worker of the Law But they have one refuge formwhat more fubwhere he lees in

10

They fay, the worker of the Laws which are recht-ded from Inflification; are the works of Preesvillefuch as goe before faith: but fuch as follow after faith, are not excluded. They would feeme to draw this gloffe faoth the works of the Text, reading them according to the wulgar Latin Translation, Nov emperibus, mile per fidem a Natural the works of the Law, untleffe by faith.

Thus they argue, Indeed works are excluded unlesse they be done by faith; but from faith, they receive a lustifying power; and thus they bring in workes to share in the bulisesse.

- Burto this we answered

Law, and the works of Faith,

Faith, are not set in opposition, but the workes of the Law, and Faith. For they would have a salse supposition granted, that though VVorks of Law are excluded, yet VVorkes of Faith are not.

are done in Faith, are peremptorily excluded. Look onely upon Abraham, a faithfull man, the father of the faithfull, his workes were many, they were glorious, nor can wee deny them reproceed fro faith
yet the Apostle faily enough proves it, Rom. 4.
that hee had not in his workes, whereof to glory before God,

3. But wee answer more presse-

F

t

C

f

5

k

3

f

pressely, by vindicating the Text : E im, which they translate, Nisi, unlesse, is not Conditionall; but either exclusive, so it is taken for ciror, onely; or adversative; fo it is taken for and, but : and thus it is used in many Scriptures, Gal. 1.7. in mines, But there are fome that trouble you: Matth. 12.4. up nis isperiment, But to the Priefts onely: Revel. 21.27. is pod is propagations But they that are written in the Lambs booke. Befides, A'Ma and Eim, or Ecopi, feeme to be the same in the very word; for Alla, is of the Syriacke, Ellos, which is from the Hebrew Im le, and that is in Greekerendring, Ean mé. Moreover, to clear Hierome

So Aug. de Spir. & lit. c. 13.

Hierome, by Hierome : hec, though he translate it, Nifi, unleffe, yet in the allega-tion of the place, hee frequently ufeth, Sed, But. But there neede no other words, where Saint Paul determines it forplainly in another place, Rom. 3. 28: We conclude that a man is instified by faith, peols in your rous Absque operious, Without the workes of the law. I will but name one other cavill, because 'tis obvious; They fay Ifworkes be excluded, ben'are we inflife ed by faith alone, if by faith: alone, then would latch inftifie if itwere alone. Si fola, tum feffet folas Andisnos alone, fo the Apoille to thele Galatians cap 5 seen 6; mists d' exams erreprupires. Faith that workes by love : yet the inference is unworthy. the quicknesses & lesuites as if a man should fay, If the eie fee alone, then it wil fee if it be alone. Whereas we know, (to give you the thing cleare by this similitude)that although theeye alone fee, yet if it were by it selfe alone, it could not fee at all. There is no part of my body can see an obiect visible and presented, not my eye-lid, not my fore head, not my braine, but my eye onely: yet if my head, I could differ ne nothing. Wee dare not fer parate! Belde Infl. lib.z. c.4.

I answered. That faith which suffifies, cannot bee alone.

parate workes from faith, that were to leave it naked, and shew it dead : yet it is an untoward translation which Bellarmine renders, not without a manifest barbarisme, when he reads thus, Faith that is wrought by love: so making charity the forme and foule of faith. But let us retaine that forme of words, Wee are iustified, Solafide, by faith alone. The Fathers are fo ufuall in that phrase, that I could eafily weary you with the allegations. Let mee referre to fome that have the very word, Sala fin de ; Orig in lot. Bafil in conc. de humil. Ambr. cap. 9. in Rom 3. Hier. in Rom. A. Pet. Chryfol. ferm. 34. de Hamerroiffa.

roissa Bern. ferm. 22. in Can. August, in 83. Quastionibus, quast.76. But no more, for I remember where I speak, onely let mee adde the words of two testimonies. That of Chryfostome in 3. ad Galat. is very pertinent : meson year, imperateurs lune A' Sol-צאיסוי, סו פינים שובים שבינים מוניף, באםmuros. Againe (laith hee) some say, hee that relyes on faith alone, is execrable . But the Apostle speakes the contrary, hee that relyes on Faith alone; is bleffed. This Theodores, Septimo Ther apenticon, almost repeats, by pip Ai Al appar attended see, cine disquise sisses to pustnos travensamo escoris. Nor do wee obtaine moie fecret good

S

t

t

C

h

Ö

U

t

t

good things, by any of our owne merits, but by faith alone.

This for the fecond, The exclusió of falle causes; the third thing propounded for explication, is, The defignement of the true meritorious cause of our Iu-Rification : The Text declares icto be refus Christs His merits, his obedience; in doing, in fuffering. Take it in abriefe head, thus; Where there eannot be Aifirsten by plea, action bee by lome other propor. tionable means, which we call, Satisfaction, This Sat tisfaction thus be proportioned to the offence; this dising infinite, that must be alike infinite. Man therefore

Hic vide.

tur effe implicatio terminorum.

Confule pa.

14. ad finem

fore cannot fatisfie, for both his doings, and his fufferings, are limited. It. must be done by another; now all creatures are both unholy, and finite; and the two requifits necessitivity to be in the fatisfier, are, righteousnesse and infinitenes: These are solely in God, but God cannot be fatisfied by himselfe, that were onely to forgive, so he should not be fully iuft. It fals there. fore into this, that he who must satisfie, must be God, truly righteous, truly infinite; and in somewhat different from God, that there may be a compleat fitnes. Let nature fearch this mystery, she wil easily be confounded; nay, ler the foule that that finned, bee put upon the fearch, it leaves study. ing, and fals to despairing. Briefly, it must fal, upo the appointment of an higher wisdome, namely, Christ, in whom those fitnesses do all meet. Therefore, the Righteousnesse of the Iustified, is that which formally is in Christ only See how the Apostle in arges and explaines himselfe in this, in his holy zeale, against proud Zelots: they being ignorant of Gods righteousnesse, and going about to establish their owne righteousnesse, have not fubmitted themselves to the right:ousnesse of God, Rom. 10 3, 4,5,6,7, 8,9.

See

See the same Apostie, in a more practique expreffion, his owne Refolve; 1 count all things but loffe, for the excellency of the knowledge of christ lefus my Lord; and doe count them but dung, that I may winne Christ, and bee found in him not having mine owne Righteoufneffe, which is of the Law, but that which is through the faith of Christ: Phil. 3.8,9. The determination of a spirit, made Divine: Let us so goe out of our felves, and flye unto our Christ. Hee is our hiding place, and must be our strength Surely, shall one fay, In the Lordhave I righteonf. nesse and Arength, even to him shall men come, and all that are incented against him shall be be a hamed: In the Lord shall. all the feed of Ifrael be instifed, and shall glory, Esay 45. 24,25. We must not looke upon the Law, or Works, but see them hid in Christ. This mystery was excellently shadowed, whe God commanded the Ark, wherin were the Tables of the Covenant, to bee covered with a Propitiatory, upon which the Cherubs ftretcht their wings, Exed. 25.17, 18, 19, &c. Heb. 9. 4,5. Christ is that Pro: itiatory, Rom. 3. 25. Letus not prefume to uncover the Arke, or to take out the Decalogue, for it is happy, that the Law is kept shut, and inclosed from us : but let us fasten our eyes upon the

the Mercy-seat, see how sweetely the Cherubs sit, and minde not what the Chest containes; for to lift up the lid of that, were like the opening of the boxe of the harmfull Pandora, and would present horrour to the curious, the unwise Iusticiary.

The last head propounded for explication, was the means of application: Christ is that Righteousnes, how is he ours? By Faith. A man is instinct, not by the works of the Law, but by faith in lesus Christ; so the Text. We will here consider,

r. What Faith is.

2. How faith justifies.

a word may give us what may sufficethe present purpose. It hath seat both in the intelled, and in the will; and we observe in it, both Affent and Apprefion. This, indeed, is faith; or if we looke upon it, a little extended, wee perceive the thrusting away of somwhat, the accepting of fomwhat, the exclusion of workes of worth, the acceptation of Christ. The Apostle to the Hebrewer gives us this in a likephrase fpeaking of the Patriarchs faith; Thefe dyed in the faith, not having received the promifes, but having feene them a farre off, who were perswaded of them, is wareiuses, and embraced them Hebr. 11. 13. 2.This 2. This faith justifies, the Scripture is full, Rom. 3. 24, 25. 30. Rom. 10. 10. Ephes. 2,8. Concerning the manner, take it negatively, positively, in these Theses.

1. It inflifies not by bare profession, then should all hypoerites be instified but S. James disputes strongly in his second Chapter, a. gainst them, and against that Faith. In that sense he laies down his cavilled and mistaken conclusion v. 24. יא או גע פארשקלים שד שושויל ששוק אול miceas mover. By workes amanis tuftified, and not by faith onely. His intent is but the fame with Paul, in that place alleaged and vindicated, Gal.5.6.

2. Nor are we instified

by faith, as by an action which hath worth and merit in it, wherby to deferve our instification.

3. Nor is Faith such an action, which, though it have not merit, yet by favourable acceptance, is taken as if it were the perfect righteousnesse of the law.

4. But it instifies, as it is in relation to that object which it embraces, and which object is our Instification. It instifies, Relatively and instrumentally: ut terminatur in immovinguous Christi, Faith lookes upon, layes hold on Christ, on his sufficiencies, and thus is termed Instifying Faith.

Thefe

ner, to cleare this Truth

z. One is of the Papille, and more groffe, who fay, That Faith iufthies per modum cause efficientes et meritoria as an efficient and meritorious cause. This is delivered by Cardinall Betlarmine, lib. I . de Iuft. cap. 17. andby the Lefuite Pererins Come in Gow cap. 19. I an-(wer, if Faith had merit to justifie, it should then goe before Iustification, et ratienegettempere, both in na= ture; and time y which we may not grant; for Faith is by it felfe, a part of fanctification, and that weeean. nonconceive to goe before our Justification; that; namenamely, which is Fore Divive, in Gods light. But I meant but to namethis, because it is enough knowne.

2. Theother is later, and a little more subtile; They fay, Faith juftifics, fenfu proprie, in a proper fente; That, receive, the very beleeving, is imputed for righteousnesse : Non quidem merite sue sed propten gratuitam acceptilationem Dei; Not (fay they) for its owne merit, but because of favourable allowance, it is accepted, as if is had mepit : lo in a gracious acceptilation, it is received for righteoufneffe. This was delivered by Emfus Social nus, lib.4 sep.4 pag. 38411 F. rwarded by others lalfo.

Burto cleare our felves of this, we argue against it briefly, thus:

1. No man is Iustified by an act of his owne; This. proposition is true from expresse Scripture, Eph.2.5. By grace ye are faved; ver.9. Not of workes : Now the chayne is furely linckt, ju-Stification and falvation: Rom. 8: 29,30. Or more in the words, Tit. 3.6,7: Not by works of righteousnesse which wee have done, but according to his mercy he raved us, being lustified by his grace. And if by grace, then it is no more of workes, otherwise grace is no more grace, Rom. 11.6. But to beleeve, is an act of our own; I meane not any exclusion of the spirits helpe, for God workes all our works in us; onelythis I would say, that the work takes its denomination from the next agent, and man is said to believe: Therfore it is cleare, no Iustification by the Act of beleeving.

2. God accounts that for perfect righteousnesse, which is so indeed: The Apostle witnesseth the honour of Gods truth, Rom.
2. 2. Wee are sure that the Indgement of Godis according to truth. But they dare not but confesse it, that Faith is not indeed true righteousnesse of the Law: or, if otherwise, yet this were enough against it, that if Faith were that Rightenousnesse.

onsnesse, and Instification were by it, then a man should be Instified by two righteousnesses, which no reason wil admit; for it one be sufficient, there needeth not any other; and to grant it, what were it but to thrust out Christ and all his merits, as if he were need-lesse, and they insufficient.

They reply somewhat, and strangely, in an odde distinction of a double Indgement in God: Indicionam Institute, et Indicionam Indicion Instification by Fairb.

then laying a liderigour, he gracioully allowes, what in truth is not fuch.

But what impicty is this, indistinguishing of God, to separate God from God, his Truth from his mercy; Nay, they doe ever meete in God. In another kinde, we wil admit the distinction, and not divide: God lookes upon the righteoufnesse of Christ that is perfed, here is a Judgement of Truth ; God lookes upon that righteournelle as imp puted to us, not otherwife. ours, here is a ludgement of mercy; the double ludge ment that they speake of, yet Mercyand Truth are n tegelber, gemitemol : Abul first named, the Explication: I propounded, secondly, to prove what is soexplayned; and wee may see it strengthened, partly, by Testimony, partly by Arguments.

Lhavedone with white I

parallell Scriptures are plaine: fee one or two.

Rom 3.28. Applicate, idelt, manginas, Wesonclude, That a man is suffified by faith, without the deeds of the Law.

Rom. 5.1. Being instiffed by

Rom 4.6. David deferibes shobbiffednoffe of the man, in to whom God imputeth righteoujnesse, without workes.
Versey Wee say that Faith puts reckoned to Arabam for righteoujnesse. It is he tooke

Confirmation.

Bytestimes nics

By Arga

out of the witherfe of fa-

Gen. 15.6. He believed in the Lord, and hee accounted it to him for righteon suesse.

To omit others, the Apostle here subjoynes one, in the latter end of this 16.
werse, which hee receives from that Psalmist, Psal. 143
2. In thy sight shall no mantiuing beinstified. The Hebreno originall, Arietly renders in selfe by the Septengins, thus,
All stess shall not be instified:
in memoria at the constitute of the Hebre.
is memoria at the present the Greeke stames that Hebre.
is me thus, in the present Text reads it.

By Arga-

10 10

many, which the Apolile hath disposed into a just method, method, & is large in them, as containing in them a great deale of matter, full of mystery, and ful of comfort.

1. The first argument is laid out unto us, in the 17, 18,19,20. verses.

Argum. 1.

The Text.

GAL: 2.17. But if while we feeke to bee instified by Christ, we our selves also are found summers, is therefore Christ the minister of sinne? God forbid.

VERS. 18. For if I build again the things that I deftroyed, I make my selfe a Transgressor.

VERS.19. For I through the Law, am dead to the Law. Law, that I might live unto God.

Vers. 20. I am crucified with Christ. Neverthelesse I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in mee, and the tife which I now live in the stesh, I live by the faith of the some of God, who loved me, and gave him selfe for me.

chrysoftome and Hierome referre this in the 17. vers. to Peter; but more genuainely is it referred by others to the Galatians, to al, and the force of the Argument, This: Christ cals us tro the Law to faith, but if faith be not sufficient; unlesse the law be also broght in, then shall Christ seeme to patronize finne; by calling us from that Law, by vertue of which, fin is expiated. If we, who, that we might bee Iustified, have given our names to Chrift, doe yet want righteouines, unlesse wce embrace Circumcifion, and the Ceremonies of the Law, then we shall bee enforced to acknowledge that Christisa Minister of sinne, A Minifter of fia is hee which teacheth us what to doe for Righteousnelle, and foter. rifies and thuts us under finne; thus, in stead of a Sa. viour, Christ should been cyrant, a destroyer. Burthis were falle, and abominable to conceive, therefore the Apolleaddes his Ablit, God was a Minister of sinne, Christ is a giver of righteousnesse, and the Scriptures are wont to promise it only by the benefit of him,

Jevi 30

The Redeemer shall come out of Zion

In the 18. verse, hee amplifieth the former argument; comparing the law to a Building, a similitude frequent, & used elsewhere by Paul, who cals himfelfe A wife mafter builder, & Cor. 3.16. I have puld downe that frame and ftructure of the Law, that it may not reigne in the Confeiences of Christians, if I return to the Law which I have formerly forfaken, I shall manifeft my felfe to bee a deceiver, ceizer, to the vulgar, or as the Greeke carryes it; maggainy i partie ourismu, I declare my selfe to bee a finner, a Transgressor, and, as the Greeke scholies adde, still obnoxious to death and damnation. Hee hath given us his owne Character, & the true difference of Preachers : True ones, they destroy the Law, and build up the faith of Christ: Iusticiaries, falle Popish Teachers, destroy the kingdome of Christ, while they raise up the Building of the Law, and maintaine their owne Righteoufneffe. The Argument is continued in the 19. verse; no recourse is to bee had unto the Law againe, for by the Law, I

Dee vivit
qui sub Deo
est; Legi eutem, qui sub lege.
Aug.

am dead unto the Law, that I might live unto God; So that now the Law hath no power over us, which he speaks directly against them, who say, Wee mast live unto the Law, if we meanete live unto God. Nay, wee are dead to the commands of the Law, not onely free, but dead; fo though the Law live fill, it hath nothing to do with us; a flave once dead, is no longer lubiest to the hard usages of his tyrannous Master, though he call upon, and urge him, he heares not, obeyes not, because he is dead. So are we to the Law, in this bufineffe of instification. Here is mention of a law, and a law; some understand both to fignifie the same : By the fentence of the Law it felfe I am dead unto the Law:it felfe tels us, that it is not perpetuall, but Christis the End of it, when Christ comes, it ceaseth to rule. This affords a fit fenfe; yet I fee not, but that of Hierome may be rather admit. ted, who understands the former, of the Evangelicall Law, the Law of Faith: the Exposition is sweet; Our Savior is become our law, by him wee are dead unto that of Moses: Now the Binding Law, is bound it felfeby Christ, and wee by him are fet at liberty. By this interpretation, we are fallen, necessarily, upon that great Question of ChristiChristian Liberty, which because it fals in so fitly into this verse, I wil spend some more words upon it, more largely.

DOCTRINE OF CHRISTIAN LIBERTY.

The knowledge of this Question is very necessary, and yet dangerous; Necessary, that the consciences of men bee not kept unstablished; Dangerous, because carnall men doe wantonly abuse it. I intend not so much as maybe spoken of it, but so much as may may bee fit for this Comment, and an ordinary Sermon.

There is a various Liberty: 1. A liberty in causes and effects, that mutable order between an Agent 8c an Effect; both voluntary. That the Agent may either worke, or not worke fuch an Effect: This is opposed to Neegffity. 2. A liberty in the Will, a naturall faculty of the reasonable creature, to chuse or refuse an object of its owne proper motion. Thus the reasonable is left to his owne Election. This is opposed to Coadion. 3. That Li. berty which is the right of a creature, either Person, or Thing, to worke of its OWICE

Libertas in genere, est satus so-cundum quem quis est sui Juris et alteri no obligatus. Armin disp. pub, 10.

m m

owne proper motion, according to naturall Law; with the enjoyment of uninterrupted convenient good things together with which it workes, and the freedom from fuch defects as are hinderances, and burdenous to that natural law. The two former are not here meant, onely this third, which is opposed to fervitude, is proper to this place: yet not in al respects; for againe, this Liberty is twofold; Civill, and Spirithall : The latter is that which concernes our Quefion & concerning which, I would propose to speake of.

r. The Description of it.

2. The Ends of it.

3. The

3. The confequents from it.

foription, we have found it in the third kind of Liberty, which is opposed unto slavery, and may therefore call it, A spiritual summently from the evils and burdens of the servitude of the Law.

therefore it supposed week were once bound. The words in our Common-Law, which gives light unto this peece of Divinity, Immunity, Freedom, Franchise, Enfranchisement, do all signific an exemption from somewhat week were under before. The word Liberty, is of a more restrained signification, and notes

Brafferdib, 2-sap-2-

D2

a

Manumittens, manumittendum manu tenebat, quam deinde cum folveret inquichat, Hunc liberum effe
volo.
luftiniano

dn 15. Ric. 2.649. 4. dn 2. Hen.

a privilege held by grant or prescription, whereby a man enjoyes some favour beyond an orginary jubject. But the other words are more expressive. Manumittere, which fignifies to Make Free, is properly to fend one out of his hand, because so long as a slave continues in his fervitude. he is in the hand of his Mafler. Liberty from the law, is the delivering us from that hand, or power of the Law, by which wee were formerly held. Soa Franchife is a privilege from ordinary Jurisdiction, and that is called a Franchise Royall, in some Statutes, where the Kings Writ runneth not, Such an exemption

tion hath the Christian from Mofsicall Power, yet we were once under it. For againe in our Common-Law, wee fay a man is Enfranchifed, when hee is Incorporated into fome foriety, or body Politike. Hee that by Charter is made Denisen of England, 18 Enfranchifed. Now a Denifer is an Alien enabled, My readings in this businesse out of the compaffe of my proper fludy, may miffake, but that I entend it for, is true, that wee were before Aliens, till we became incorporate into the body of Chrift, by which onely we plead our Freedome. 12. It is a Spirituall Immunit therefore not Givil.

crompt luvild. (.141. Brit cap 19 Brast lib.z. Brast lib s againe, therefore not Carmall. Wee are neither exempted from obedience to men, nor God.

3. An Immunity from the evils & burdens of the Law, or more largely of fervitude.

1. From the evils of fer-

I. From the curse of the Law. The law Iustifies none, we must therefore be either freed from the law, or not at all Iustified; For as many as are of the works of the Law, are under the curse; for it is written, Carseld is every one that continueth not in all things in the book of the Law to doe them. Gal. 3.

10. Deut. 27. 26. But here is our freedome, Gal. 3.

Christ

Christ bath redeemed as from the curse of the Law, being made a curfe for as. Hee became acurle for us, and was made, for our lakes, as the greatest sinner, he stood in place, as David the Adulterer, as Peter the Denger, as Paul the Persecutor. Wee must see our Christ, wrap. ped as well in our Sinnes, as in our flesh, He was numbred with the Transgreffors, and he bare the finne of many, Efa. 53.12.He was made sinne for us, who knew no finne, that we might bee made the righteoufmeffe of God in him, z Cor. 5. 24? Thus is hee pleased to call our finnes, his; and he speakes in David his Type, Pfal.40. 12. Mine iniquities have taken hold upon mee, fo D 4 that that I am not able to looke up, they are more than the haires of my bead. Christ flanding thus a finner, the law accufed him, and after accufation, kild him. But hee bath fatisfied, and the Law is overcome; we have learned to triumph: o death where is thy fling? The fling of death is sinne, and the strength of finne is the Law ; but thankes be to God, which givethus the villory through lefas Christ our Lord, 1 Cor. 15:55: 56, 57. When the Law curfeth, fends out Writs, fues out Attachements ; wee plead Immunity, and fend the law to Christy whom we aree freed. or ni askano

finne, the other evill of fere

vitude. Yeeld your felves unto God, for sinne flat not hove dominion over you, for ye are not under the Lum Your under grace, Romi 6.14 They are incouraged to the Combat by a double motive, the goodness of their cause, the casinelle of their conquests. When wee! are freed from the Laws which onely commands, but gives no firengeli to de bey; 'rather takes'away our firength, & addes firength to finne, then are we under grace, which belide that ic forgiver that which is pedinicidorh larmonus con tele herd of that which is to come : as Chryleftone fucts hexpounds the iRowait to whom the holy affecti-DS Apoon pugna.

Inteletem

nus fib te:

ge pagna.

unto, fed

vintamme,

ub gratin

ugmanis

el-binoi

mus in pace ne pugnamus quidem.

Augi in:

Rom. 6.

Que presterquam
priora dis mittit, ad futura ques que cavenda animat.
Chrys.

Ghriftian Liberty.

Apostle glorieth, Rom. 8.2. The Law of the spirit of life in Christ tefus, bath made mee free from the Law of Sinne. From the accusing, the power, the bond, the right, the quilt of finne, the law of the members.

. We are freed not only from the culls, but from the burdens of fervitude.

1. From the Coaction of the Law a for the Law doth burden a man, and hinder the alacrity of his obedience. A precept of the Law is Then fials love the Lord sby God wish all thy bears, with all thy mind with all thy frengsh.

To bee empty of allo ther loves, to fer the fole

affecti-

affection upon God. Here the most perfect faile, for though our love unto God be fincere, yet we are, many times, drawne off with other lufts. But the Law tels us, Heis curfed that comtinnes pet in all Now we fee what ever we endevor, we are still under the Curse; our workesare, Mala quia imperfecta, therefore evill, because nor perfectly goods. This dullerhehe beart, and discourageth it from any offer. The peevifh eye of a froward Mafter, makes the fervant heartleffe What should I do any thing, freing whatfoever I doe, I cannot pleafe. This is the burden of the Legally righteous; the taske it fer, the y they must either doe to, or fmart for neglect, The The radices are believe lightey bring not in their said of bricke, Exedis 14 Burhere is our Liberty, God (pareth de, as a man spares his owno former but ferwethebenes wants 3/17 The Command is giv ven, Det not finne reigne in your mortall Body and the Promise is added with the Congraded Sime flatt not hevedaninian over you. The Law canbot condruso but grace unloadsus, removes our butthens and foreovers fervant beartlemedaline

Indifferents, when they prove burdens of the lewes were bound to use and re-

fulc

fulcations things, the Vfing and Refuling of which had eliebeene Indifferent.
They must abstaine from Swine, from things firsting led, and the like, We have liberty of a freer use of Godscreatures, being not fubject to ordinances, Touch not, Tafte not, Handle not, Col. 2.20, 21.

iected to such commands, as whereby they would bind the conscience. Now the constitutions of men are either, and not constitutions of men are either, and not constitutions of men are either, and not constitutions. These we have a substitution, thoughing a company of them, thoughing a company of them, thoughing a company of the redship of constitutions.

yes not the fervious of men: yet, Rom. 13.1. 5. we have that other expounded, Les every (onle bee subject to the higher powers, for the powers that bee, are ordained of God. Who relifieth the power, schileth the ordinance of God : Wherefore yes must needs bee subject for conscience fake.

1. Ecclefia Ricall; Thefe

concernacither,

The marter of Gods worthip; then we renounce them as great prefumptions; for Divine worthin eannotic baves linkibution. from humane consmand.

Or the manner of worthip, tending to decent Cyron diese Conflitutions may ander; not bind a er der

der the carriage, not binde the confeience an unitedly

But concerning both thele and those Conflitutions of meane, both Beclesiasticall and Civili, I would deliver my felfe a little more fully; and to that end, wil prefent a few conclutions touching Indifferents, their nature and extent.

i. An Adiaphoron or Indifferent, is, Resmodio, 2 middle thing, which stands. foto two extremes, that it may alike incline to both And in the ordinary, though not proper wie of the word, it is a Medium betweenemerall good and evill Plow fuch a Atediam, it althor of mocre Abdaidw negati-

Christian Liberty

negation, pell Substances, whether naturall or artificiall, are Resmedie, Indifforent things odor assome: participation, which for farre agrees with either extreme, as the extremes agree between themselves, for an Substantics are properly indifferents, but A. ctions only: Actions there_ fore which are neither commanded intorn forbidden, and which in their intrinsieke natures have seither obedience, nor difebedience, ase indifference in 27 Indifferent Actions in their owne intrinficall nature, nothing differemone themfolyes but arould se qually far from good and evill or But therents forme which negatt

Mediam Abregassa nis, Pedina Participa tionis,

which, for the most party heve evill chounitances accompanying themy and therfore found in the world confet as if they did incline to cvills as to be an accuser. may be indifferently good or bad, yetweill interpret that name. On the contratype lome Actions commonly accompanied with good circumstances, 4s. to be studious found wel, and are conreived to tendito good, though a mans flus dy may as well be evill and corrupt. orne ison

Authority, they are commanded or forbidden. Nothing ought to bee commanded, but onely good;

ting.

100

nor anything but evil prohibited. What is indifferent in the nature, cannot simply; absolutely, and perpetually be forbidden, or commanded; but commanded as it comes nearer to good; and as nearer to evill, forbidden.

From these grounds wee may draw Rules, for our freedome from, or obedience to, for changed Indifferences, and the Consti-rutions of men.

of our freedome deferibed; now the Ends both of it, and of the doorine of it, are;

fcience, that that greatDillicence, may not be left flex

ting,

ground it both, and how it may proceed.

perstition, that the minde may know, it is not tyed to a throng of needlesse observances, and discouraging teares.

worke, in the comfort and readinesse of our set working.

third proposed, The Consequents from the former.

i. The freedome is spi-

the Anahaptifts mad, who would reject all law, and make the whole world levell; denying obedience to Lawes and lawfull Magiftrares a difeafe begun in the distempered heads of Tohnof Leiden, and the mademen of Munfter; op. poled among otherschiefly by the holy zeale of Luthen whole doctrine of Reformation was dangeround miffaken by Those faracickes which Lithe rather note, becade fome halfe iffues of that money frous Bircht men! that bleffed Apolle of our lai ter times to patronize their conceies and errours about the morall Law pair or aNor: Carnall whence then are our ordinary exis ceffes, institlerate of good things is woundarfecting the bdespiandovariery of delay 03 cates cares doe sufficiently witneffe our carnall licenciouspesse, that I need not instance the pride of our fashions, the immoderatenesto of our pleasures But thefe are Indifferents: True, if they bee used indifferently, but Excesses are not. What may bee lawfully used, by an inordipare defire to it, and de light in it, is made uncleane. Such Inordinates. are defiled, and by the witnesse of the Apostle, Titus 1.15. To them that are defiled nothing is pure. Our Saviour hath shewed a difference Luke 6, 2. We surp you that exerish, for yee have received your Confolation : Wes unto you that that are full. Tis lawfull to enion an estate; Why then is the Woe against them? They are immoderate, when being Rich, they receive their Consolation, and are Full: It argues, they have made their state, their Happinesse. This is the peoples sinne: Amos 6.1.6. Woe to them that whe are asse in Zion, that drink wine in Bowles, and annoynt themselves with chiefe syntments.

When wee come to be at case in our enjoyments, we abuse our Liberty. But these things are then truly indifferent, when wee are come to Pauls Resolve, Philip 4, 11, 12, 1 have bearned to be content, I know born how to bee abased, and bow to abound, to be full, and to be hungry.

2. Though Spirituall, it is an immunity. Then if wee have a Charter from heaven, how dare as ny deny it, or with hold it. Those miserable men that are under the Popish yoake, have many heavy loads laid on their Consciences, the Pontificials dealing with the Abused, as Pharaobs Taskemafters with the afflicted Hraelites, they load them hard, and then beat them, when they are loaden.

3. The ends are:

1. To quiet the Confeience; therefore not to afflict the Confeiences of others. Theod.
reads with Interrogative.
Omnia mibi licent?
Sed non expediunt.
Chryfoß.
Ambrof.
read without.

others. They abuse their Liberry, that use it unseafonably, to the hindering of the weake. Some young Christians of Corinth would cate Idelethyts meats effered to Idols, to that end onely, to flew their Liberry, but they are anfwered by the Aposte, Licent que expedient, 1 Cor. 19,34 All things are lawfull for mee; but all things are not expedient. And in another place, hee applyes it more directly, Brethren, yee have beene called unto liberty, onely use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another: Gal. 5. 13. Chrift hath loofed the yoake, not that wee should bee more wanton, but but more chearefull; as S. Chryfostome hath well followed the minde of the Al postle; who, I cor. 8. 11. strongly argues against this abule, from the great danger of it, to the perverting of a weake brothers foule. If thouhaft knowledge, and eatest Idolothyts, another shall be encouraged to doe irignorantly, and therfore finfully. Through the know ledge, Shall thy weake brother periff, for whom Christ dyed? Wilt thou fuffer thy brother to perilli for le net, ut ille. gitima fat visa ratio Cedat legem tran. feendet: phias folu (unt legie vinenta, non ut defed warialtiora: Etenims is quifcertaint A te perfe

rat, legis terminos excessi; verum non codem mode do, sed bic quidem in deteriora prolopsu, ille un ro ad meliora provessua, se us alser presugre su sit legem, alter super-gressiu i bion itaque das Laulus, Christino Ingum vabis relaxavit, no us existant aut sulcitretu, sed us absq; sugo composite incedesta Chrin loc. Qui per charicatem servitelibero servite dom (mal.

E

a Tuo allu illum occi. die, quando e te fierioides, qued Hewistor intelligie, de the erway occafe mortis freisi, quem Chri-HIS NE TEAL meret krus cifigife. permiffit. Amb in s Concepus, obrifine. pro france No ne in smalla cause, he taking occession to doc as 2 Ambrose speakes, what be under frands met gor as b Chry foftome, Christ dyed for him, and wilt not thou deny thy felft for bin ? But the danger is not more to the weak brother, then to the wilfull offender s for it followes in the next verle, But when yet some so against the brethern refine engainft Christ. - 21 A lecond end is, to remove superflicion, therefore it doth plainely condemne fuch as use their liberty to superstition. They dare venture upon any obfervations unwarranted by any thing, but blinde Cu. frome Scolead All is lawfull.

physiding detierb Domiserms 6.

3. A third end is, to directus in our walke, wee therefore haveliberry, and are made acquainted, with our liberty, that we might know how unconfirmedly to frame our obedience; making ble of the Law. but not in fervitude unto it; which therefore condemnes fuch as quite caft away the Law, as if of no use, and prove themselves of lawlefle and ungoverned humours, true Libertines.

Give me leave to make a double application, or use, of this Truth.

ty, by the Law dead unto the Law, let us then fland taff in our liberty, and la-E 2 bour Hierom cals the law, Duram, difficilem, laboriofam, que die ac nocte cultores fuos, gravi os
pere confumit.
Hier in los-

bour to maintaine it. It is the Apostles Rule, anuse or confectary from his owne doctrine, Gal. 5. 1 Stand fast therefore in the Liberty wherewith Christ bath made us free, and bee not entangled againe with the yoake of hondage. The Law is a yoake of bondage; and Iufliciaries, who looke for righteoutnes from thence, are like Oxen in the yoake, who draw, and toyle, and spend their Arength, and when they have done their labour, are fatted up for flaughter: fo these, when they have endevored hard after their ownerighteouf. neffe, they perifh in their iuli condemnation, Thele: Luther fitly cals, The Divels Mar-

Martyrs ; they take much paines to goe to hell. Hee gives his instance in those blinded Monkes, who afflict and scourge their bo. dies, yet mille of Christ, the right way to life. The word is metaphoricall, ioixede, Ne implicemini , Be not entangled, alluding to Oxen, who are tyed to the yoake, their neckes being pressed and kept under. Let us not returne like willing flaves into our chaines againe; the condition will be more miferable, *It is a more heavy evill, of a Freeman to be made a flave, than to bee a slave borne. Let us preserve our Franchises. and defend our Charters a gainst all that oppose the: E 3 Men

Aug. reads it. Ne attineamini. Ambr. Notiteco. biberi. TertaL cont. Mar. LAGANOlite afringi, Vetalaticontineri. a Gravius malum; ex libero fervum fieri: quam fervum nafçi. Ambr.

Men contend for their liberty, and endure not any thing tending to the least derogation of what they prize. In that cause the Doctors of Serbenne will oppole the Pope; and if Becawrite his Controversia Anglicana de potestate Papa et Regis, they will sentence it to the fire, though in other causes they acknowledge him their owne. If they trench the least upon these holds, neither the writings of that subtile Suarez, nor of the mad Gaspar Scioppius, nor of Rob. Bellarmine himselfe, their deified Atlas shall e. scape the fire. Let usemu. late their courage in a better liberty. Obiet.

obiect. But what need an exhortation be spent upon what is naturally defirea; ble ? All affect Liberty. and ioy in it. b Politicke writers have concluded it. That Servitude is either contrary, or at least beside nature. Tis true; the defire of liberty is naturall, but not of spirituall liberty: for men love their fins, and the fervice of their lufts : and proud nature would faine purchase its owne redemption. Men affect a carnall liberty, but that is true bondage; for who foever committeth sinne, is the servant of sinne, Joh. 8. 34. mas o mudo, Heethat maketh sime, (i.e.) he that doth it as his worke, that makes proviliLibertas, que ferata. mentefper it mertem Respexit to mendy lon go pol temo pora venito Tyterus w Vag Timpler Occonom. liber .casy probb 19. Keckerni. Syn Occor CAP-41115 curit plut di(p.28 pro Alfed Oe COB.

Puente eliquis tibe u peragit pervers a e unis. nto ini quitatis fervitio obnoxins obliga-Greg.25. peral.c.20 2d 4 mor.c. Improbus in feipfo codatur, malitia (na laqueis Brangu la -Ambt. Aug. de Vert. Bo (D'M. 48.

provision for the flesh to fulfill the lusts thereof, Rom. 13,14. That willingly subjects himselfe. Hered would not be bound by the strictnesse of the Baptists preaching, John tels him, It is not lawfull to marry Philips wife; he cares not, but will have it lawfull, and though warned, marries. His incestuous luft was his chaine, and though he shooke off law, he could not shake off that. But if the sonnemake us free, we shall be free indeed, lob. 8.36.

reft not, breake forth and cry

thou that travellest not, for the desolate hath many more children, than shee which buth an husband, Gal 4. 27. It is borrowed by Paul from the Prophet Efaiato, cap. 54. 1. and cited according to the reading of the LXX. The Allegory is comfortable, which the Apostle useth: Abraham had two wives Agar, and Sarah, Agar was fruitfull, Sarahbarren; yet Sarah must rejoyce and shout for ioy, because shee hath a fonne, not according to the flesh, but according to the promise. They that are married to Agar, to the Law, have many children; the people of the Law; are a laborious and Irvitfull people. When a man is blin-E 5 blinded in his conscience, and thinkes with him felfe. I must doe this to falvation; He will be frequent in his labours, in his fastings, in his watchings, in his foourgings, in his Almesgiving. So among ours, when they know not Christ the way, but are conceited. of the worke done, men may bee forward, to the Church to their devotions. Here is a fruitfull wombe, many children, the workes of the Law; but there can benotrue ioy in them, for Agar and her children Shall be caff out. The true Church may be more barren, yet if Christ be received into the heart, thee may reioyce. This is our comfort, our freefreedome: We delire to be more fruitfull, and long earneftly for a full wombe. Oh that we could be more abundant in good workes! that weecould outgoe the strictest Papif, the leverest lusticiary! yet wee would notboast of our children, or thinke therefore to bee accepted, because webring many young ones in our hands nay, though we are! not fo abundant, (which is our griefe,) yet this is our joy, it is Christ upon whom alone wee trust. Ah Lord, wee cannot pleade with them, Matth. 7:22,23. Wee have cast out, divels in thy. name: Wee have prophecyed in thy name: In thy name we havedone many wonders ..

ders. Nor delire wee fo to plead, for thou wilt fay to fuch, Depart from me. We have not fought fuch a righteoulicile, and therefore we fing for loy.

I now proceede, to follow the Apostle againe in his owne method; we are fill upon his first argument, which is continued in the 20. verfe. Hee had told us before, that he was Dead unto the Law; Now he expounds his meaning, 1 am crucified with Chrift. Christ was upon the Groffe as a publicke person : hee was dead to the Law, because crucified; being dead the Law could no more command. And hee being dead to the Law, we being crucified with him, are dead with him, We are crucified with Christ, for he was in our flead, as a burgeffe in a Parliament, for a whole Corporation; or there is a Donation to us, of Christ, and al his forthat his death is ours. Yet this death gives life and liberty; Neverthelesse 1 live, yet not 1, but Christ livesh in me. Christ lives in us, in our hearts, fo that this our spirituall life, is no other, than the life of Christ living inus, really, and numerally the fame; for as the life of the naturall body and head, is really & numerally the fame, because of that firid coniunction of the head and body; fo, and much more Rollicus in loc.

Christian Liberty. is this; as the conlunction is greater and more close: and therefore is Christical? led our Bife, Col. 3.4. Hee Amb lib.2. de pas caso that lives in Christ ceafeth to be what he was before: It is a picity flory which we finde in Same Ambrote A young man who had loofely mif-fpent his time, but the new Convert returnes an answermuch like rhis of the Apostles, But I am not I. When we are crus cified with Christ, we live not any longer our own life. Hepfaith not Hee lives in Christ but which is more divinely elegant, Christ lives in him! As finne is faid taking a journy into other parts, was, by the mercy of God, converted; at his returne home, hee is met, and faluted by his wanton Love; hee entertaines her with a coy and firange looke; Shee wondring at his carriage, and thinking his Travel might make him forger his former acquaintance, begins to tell him who shee was, It is I it is I:

Sed ego work fum ego. Ambr.ib. a Non vivit ille, qui

tolive in us, when we obey it; fo, when Christquides Aus fabions us, he lives within us. This tia, forestudo,fermo. he feemes to promife, 10h. 14.19 . Because I live ye shall dium case. live alfo. We must not live req: VIIII. onely in our owne person, but must still have our eye bet men poon Christ, as it were, the tel diceres forme of our foule, where-Chriftus. by it lives, and is actuated. Hier in loc. If we separate Christs per. fon from ours, Then we abide bide under, and live in the Law. Thus hath the Apofile by preoccupation, answered that objection, If you are dead, bow doe you then live? He answers by diftinction of a double life; Naturall, that is my owne; Spirituall, that is the life of another, made mine; I, as Paul, am dead, but Tlive as a Christian, Thefurious perfecutor was crucified, the godly preacher now lives, as Gregory excellently explicates that of our Saviour, He that willbee my Disciple, let him deny himfelfe. But again they might obied, thou livest by thine ownelife, we fee theebreathing, moving, performing the actions of a natual life. We

Non Sufficie softraresif retienos die. Alindfunus perpetcution lapfo dind per naturans And a live tle after, Extindu fueras fa: um ille perfeenter. פי שועפוני coperat pi predicator. Greg, in wang, Hom 22:

Wee fee thy flesh, but Christ we see not. That he cleares, Indeed I live in the flesh, but 'tis as no life, I fee, speake, cate, drinke, fleepe, but 'tis not the flesh that leads me; in these very outward things, I am alfoguided by my Christ. This bee pleads against the malitious, 2 Cer. 10. 2, 3. There are some which thinke of us, as if wee walked ac cording to the flesh, though we walke in the flesh, wee doe not warre after the flesh: We live not fo, as to obey the command of our lufts. He lives by faith, and in the latter words of this verse, hee noteth to us the causes of his faith ; I live by the faith of the Sonne of Gad, who loved me, and gave himfelfe for me. Thefe together. firme the beleever, that Christis the Son of God, that the Son of God loves us, that hee manifelts his love by his death for us. Faith flayes not upon the Sonne of God, as fimply fuch, but upon the Sonne, loving and dying; therefore it is faid, Rom. 3, 27. through faith in his blood.

Hitherto have wee purfued the first Argument of this Apostolike truth; or according as our method cals it, The first Reason of Pauls Doctrine; I shall passe the others more briefly, to haften to his ple or application.

2. The second argument

1500

Wast file

THE TOTAL

verse of this second Chapter.

The Text

VERS. 21. I doe not frufirate the grace of God; for if righteoufnes come by the Law, then Christ is dead in vaine.

IT is an argument, ex abfurdo, from a double abfurdity, that would easily follow upon the granting of a contrary to this truth.

1. If wee should seeke Lustification by the law,
then wee should make frustrate the grace of God.
Our estro to reserve to Soi, I do not make frustrate. The word,

Mon fum ingratus gratia Dei.
Aug.
Non irritam facio
gratiam Dei.

word, weamis, doth figni-

1. To contemne, as Heb.
10.28. the word is used,
is supposed in the state of the position, Hee that despised or contemned Moses Law.

2. To reiect, as lob. 12 48. interipted in applicar, &c, He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words.

3. To disanull, as Gal. 3.
15. inhis dorniru, If it be a mans Covenant, no man disannullethis.

How great is that evill, and confequent absurdity, by seeking a legall righte-ousnesse, to make frustrate, that is, to contemne, to reiect, to disannull the grace or free dispensation of mercy of God? What sin is there more hainous? and yet what more common? When wee doe expect of our owne, wee doe, as it were spit upon Christ, contemping him as vile : We, as it were, tread him under foot, casting him away as unulefull; we, as it were, fruftrare all his merits, as being of no value; High and fearefull finnes, of a bloudy Dye, and treafona. ble nature. For thus we let workes in the place of Christ and rebelliously displace from the Throne, fo wines of the right Soversigne, wal feelins non ona. The fecond abfurdity c3 15 75'09 mil und is that then it would follow, That Christ dyed in pric, & per raine off righteouspelle come by the Law, then is bell. cap : 6 Christ

Chaist dead, hoped, that is the word in the Greeke Text. Appear, commonly fignifies, gratis, gratuito, freely; Rom 2, 24. Inchouse the But here it lignifies, without merit, or rashly, on tomo purpose, or without merit, or rashly, on tomo purpose, or without merit, or rashly, on tomo purpose, or without acause as the Ancients consent. So doth Reason; sono sone effect, there can bee bur one proper cause, and by itselfe Nature saw this, and delivered it.

Righteoulnesse cannot be of both, it must be of the law, crof faith, if if is the law, then Christ died to no purpose, which were bles phemy to imagine a for then should God be unlist, dot no cause to load frim with

Hieron. & mues Graci. Tum mors Christi Supervacanea. Ambr. es Aug. Hilar. in Pfa.119. en lit. 5 Unim of. fectus non potefteffe, nif 'una caufa pro. prie, & per Arif. Hb.z. poft. cap. 16 with his wrath. They are but little lesse blasphemous, who dare affirme, that he dyed but to merit, First grace. That is to fay, hee dyed sepects to no purpose. But 'tis our comfortable knowledge, he dyed to metit, not primam gratiam, but integram luftitiam, not only the first grace, but perfect righteoumeffe, and therfore dyed to great putpole, for good caufe. 3.AThe third Argument is in the first and second verses of the third Chapto heare, before her ares c. eds to teach: a wildome

Argum.3.

ht for a tag is affente the World left being unprepa-

GA 1.1301. O fooliff Galati-

lead of lowing, we leatter

and

and lofe the fred. He calls them, Hoolife Galutions; nor usa Marionall brand, as Hierom imagines : fo as the Cretans were called Liars; the Dalmatians furious; the Gracians light or inconstant, and so of o thers, but onely as a fit expreffion of his vehement zeale against their sinne, Nor is it against the precept of Chrift, May.5.22. for, we may be angry; Paul, Peter Chriftbimfelle was fo: and it is law full to reprove. It was resh and caufelesse anger which our Saviour condemned there may bee an anger of reproofe whereby Goo may be honoured : that must be o'r caucion and care, left a Vet lat.

Insertati
Aug. Stulti.
Hier Audes
b Hier in praf. in lib.
bunc.

Chryf in loc.
It an lib. 4.
cap 27.
Imp opin in Mat 5 Momil 2.
Aug. deferin mon. l. 1.

dug ut fuprating. d. The Aquin 2 td. quest. otherwise we serve not the Lord, but our passions, as both Saint Anstin and Themas have divine y explicated it. Twas a suft reprehension, for they are all Fooles that over throw Christ. Is it not extreme folly to overthrow our peace, our comfort, the meanes of our reconcilement? To oppose the righteous elle of Christ, is to torseit all these, and to make our selves mise able.

This reproofe, tepartly initigates, and partly agreed gravates.

I. He micigates, by translating the fault, in a kinde, from them upon others? multiple ponders? Who hath bes witched you? Bassesses fignis

fies

fies sometime to * Emuy In this fense, his reproofe is not onely moderate, but mixed also with the tacite commendation of their vertue, which hath procured its owne usuall attendant Enwy, from the Divell, and wicked men. But more properly we may take Barquirer, for padicires, tokill with the eyes; as more ancient Philosophers, and more lately, Leon, Varius, have handled and proved ir. Thus the Apostle might feenie, according to the vulgar opinion, to allude unto thar, That they were blindedand mif-led by impostors. Hereticall teachers are bewitchers, that as those made false things F 2 ap-symmash lib 6 6 78 Sidenius, lib. 4ap.2

Plin 1.8.2.8 Theophral. Lib de Cha Arif. in probl. Plater. Conviv. lib.s. Virg et. 3 · Nefcio quis seneres oculus mihi fafcinat ag-Gei inned. lib. 9. cap. 4. Leon, Var. lib.3.

appeare as true, fo thefe. They fell not through malice; but deceit, being bewitched, that they (bould not obey the truth. It is the great policy of the Divell and his, to keepe nature blind, or if not blind, yet rebellious, that men might not understand the Doctrin of free Iuttification, which Doctine most strongly fights against the kingdom of Satan. Thus the Apofile hath wifely dealt his blow, by a gentle mitiga. tion, while the offenders night fee : fledion in him, without Arrogancie

All are not fitted for a rough handling; in our reproofes we must endeauns fing:

fing; by the former, wee thall thew our felves tonest, by the latter, difcreet.

t

His pleasing nesse bath appeared in the mitigation, his plainnesse will appeare in the aggravation of their fault.

2. He aggravates by the evidence of that doctrine which they had received. That others did bewitch them was their malice, but that they would bee bewitched, having beene for clearly taught, was their extreme weakeneffe. They sell not from a truth, that they were scarcely acquainted with, but what was drawne before them with a pencill; clearly F 3 wrought wrought and discerned. It is a dangerous matter to leave a knowne Truth. When Christ is evidently taught, hee is, as it were, painted forth unto us. They had to understood the Gospell, that they had feene him, as it were, fpit upon, fcourged, revited, crucified, and yet had forfaken the faith in him. I cannot leave this, (though I intended but a short Comment) without touch. ing at two or three obfervations very briefly.

obser. 1. By faith beleeving the Gospell taught, they saw Christ before their eyes.

Faith fees things that are farre removed, and makes

m wes them outs & The ovidence of shings not feene. Reafons eye is taric more dull thanthis: This fees truth in a promise for after times and beholds it with fuch a fledfafineffe, as if it were already prefent. Because God hath promifed it shall be, my faith fees it already here. Let me instance one more particular; Inthe Sagrament of the Communion, an unworthy Communisant differnes not the Lords body Naturallmen feebuc acovered sable, fome outward fignes, Bread and Wine, poore alas, and inglorious Elements; But Faith beholds much under those vailes, it fees Christ, his body and bloud, it talks and and feedes upon Christ in the Evebarift, and attracts nouritament from what it feeds upon.

Offerv. 3. When Paul taught the Gospell, Christ was drawne forth before their eyes. It was Paul whole worke but to paint out Chrift. Himfelfe had determined to know nothing but tefus Christ, and kim crubut what he might favingly know; And my fpecch, and my preaching was not with intiting words of mans mifedome, i Cor 2224. Our preaching must be plaine and lively : plaine, that Christ may been truely painted before us a dively, that in the fresh knowledge of his death, hee may bee crucified among us. They are bad Preachers that paint themselves in their owne colours, instead of Christ, While in our ordinary Sermons, we doe unaccessarily tell you, how many Fathers wee have read, how much we are acquainted with the Schoolmen, what Criticall Linguins we are, or the like: Tis a wretched ofentation; we doe over much affed our ownepicture, and paint unto you our owne Schollership. It is not fe that Divinity should be fordidly attended by with fuch words as may both take the fense and the understanding. Yet there is most wisedome and efficacy in Gods Oratory, the facred Scripture-expreffion; and wee preach with most authority, when we deny our felves. I speak not, as affecting a fluttish hadling but a Sermon wel dreffed with fit words, rather tha fine; but especially in the evidence of the Spirit, & with power. This way we hall draw the heart into theeare, and as wel Touch, as Affect. So our Saviour taught, it was the will of the Father which hee published, and harh received that praise by the Evangetift, from the Spirit of God, He taught as one baving Authority and not as the Scribes, Mat. 7.29.

suffification by Faith.

Obser.

obser.3. The doctrine of Christ-crucified, is for beforetheir eyes. Let me now direct you, what is the best ornament of your houses, and your hearts too, The Crucifix. Lercharbehung every where : I meane, not a wooden, or braten, or though of some purer mertall, gold or filver ; but the faving knowledge and contemplation of Christin the heart. Let him bee before your thoughts, as if your eyes faw him firetched along, and nailed to the Crosse, his head bending in a folemne and yeelding posture, his armes spread, as if wooing ourembraces. This, let this be all our Superfition; notto adorcan Image,

108 Inflification by Faith. Image, but to make use of more profitable Preaching. Images were not brought into the Church, till prenching grew flacke, I need not instance you the Canon of Bliber's the ludge-Conc. Hlib. AR.305. ment of originathe zeale of Epiphanius, the decision of Hieron in Epif. Epi Gregory Toutis Maffelian. Greg.lib.9. That of amancient, in the Epift, Ep. 9. Library of the Fathers, is Biblioth. expresse for all None of the pair.Tom. Antient Catholickes ever thought that Images were to be adored. A way with those new superficions, let this be our Crucifix, our I mage, to beleeve in Christ, and make ufeofhis death og gu.

The Apostles reprehension of these Galatiane, bath kept us from the third Ag-

Inflification by Faith.

of 7-

d

1-

of

of

C

gument, delivered in the fecond vens That by which ye received the Spirit, that is it which instifics you, you received non the Spirit by the workes of the Law, but by the bearing of Fauth. There is the Spirit of Son-fine and the Spirit of Gifts; Chry fofteme understands it of the latter : but the Argument of the place feems to meane the former. The Law is not the Minister of the Spirit and life though the Spirit worke by the Law, 10h. 16.8. Therefore they could not seceive the Spiritby the works of the Law san affurance of their Sonne-ship. But the Gest-pell is properly the Miniher of the Spirit, that workes

S piritus v 10 Stoins, Sordusor.

2109

Accepifis Spiritum Sanct: edi divis mira cula dec. Chry Suloc

Infificationby Fairb. works confidence & faith. Now the Spirit is not given but to them that are luftified, and by that by which they are instified. Hee referres the truth of this unto themselves, that they might be wordinger, the own felfe condemners. Hee speakes, as Saint Ambrofe hath the phrase, still with fome Romack against them. Or as another urgeth it. If Ladded no more fub. tle and accurate reasons, this were enough which I will now require of you, and which the rudeft and most unlearned will grant me : This would I know. Received ye, de Argum 4 4. The fourth dagu. ment is in the two following

ing verses, the third, and

The Text.

VERS.3. Are ye fo foolish?

Having begunne in the Spirit, are yee now made penfect by the flesh?

VERS.4. Have ye suffered so many things in vaine?

If it be yet in vaine.

VV absurd, is not to be believed or entertained. But it is an absurd thing to bee perswaded, That such as have begun in the Spirit may bee made persect in the fielh. The one proposition is implyed, the Miner is express.

preffed, land not without the former vehemence; dires dironnes, Are ye so foolist? The folly or absurdity will appeare, whether we confider the thing logically, or phylically, or theologically. I. Itis logically abfurd, to expect a more noble effed from an ignoble cause: to feeke perfection from the flesh, 2. It is physicallyor naturally abfurd, to attribute more efficiencie to that which is peffive, than to that which is A. dive; more to the flesh then to the Spirit. 3. It is theologically abfurd , or about in Divinity; when ther we understand it properly, or metonymically: Is properly The fleth is as graffe;

grafic ; The voyce faid, City; Alefleft tagraffe; and aftibe goodline ffe thereof is au the flower of the feld . The graffe wieheresb, the flower fadeth became the Spirit of the Lordblowerts uponit; fines 1 the people is graffe, Efa 40. 6,7. It is a withering fai ding thing. But the Spirit is Divine; and powerfull, and conflant, because Di. vine. Shall a thing, begun by Divine agency, be compleated by weake flesh? 2. Metonymically, the Spirit is Spirituall grace and faith; the Flesh is ceremony, and the workes of the Law, It was an ersour brought in by the foreducess They would admit of Partedoctrine concerning Iustifi-101996 bullification, but they wold have the Law added to and give up their fontence peremptoryto the councel, Except yee be circumsifed of ter the manner of Moles, yet connerbe foued, Alle 15. 1. An abfurdersor; As if the beginning of Light should be from the Sunne, and the encreasing of it from the nights darkeneffe. And what elfe doe the Papifle meane, when theyes! (aith, Radicem Infinitationis, The root or beginning of Justification? The lesiter explaine themselves when they fay, They therefore call it the beginning, becamfe faith doth dispositively beget charity and maritarions markes, by which properly we are institled formal-formally and materially This is that doctrine which the Apolle hath pronounced abfurd and foolith; which absurdity is further confirmed in the fourth verfe; If that were their expectation, then had they suffered much in vaine for the Faith which they now reiested. The proposition observes unto us: 1. That the Galations (uffered much, z. That the fufferings of the Galatiens, as of all Gods people, tend to Reward, not of defert, but of appointment. 3. That the Reward is to persevering in those sufferings. 4. That all fufferings for the faith are loft, if the Galatians turne unto Lawworkes againe. The fifth verse

Orig. lib 3.

S. Auf. C.

BULLIA

* Ang. de Civit dei. lib 12. .. 8 Chryf. bom. 14. 'A MAL. * Hegefip. Lib . 2. cap. 2. Epipo. Her. 66. Gree.Tal res bift. Fran.Lz 6.3 Pas Dies Re. Rem. lib alt * Lyndan Alan copu Diel 6 Argum, T

verfe hath but the fame force of Argument with the fecond, and therefore I omitit, thoughif it were feafunable to the questions in hand, and that lintended not brevity in this Comment, I might difpute it; How farre miracles doc confirme the Faith, and are necessary; what the impostures of Hereticks have beene about them; what the lyes of the Papifts have beene concerning ours:but I haften, and therefore omit them.

7 The fifth Argument followes in the foure next verless and the foure next for the later are lost, if the office a cine. The fifth an rest

क र्ष्ट्रिका विद्यास्त

The Textank

VERS. 6. Even as Abraham beloeved God, and it was accounted to bine for righteousuesses.

VERS. 7. Know yee there fore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

vould suftifie the Heathen shrough faith, preached before the Gospell unto Abraham, saying in Thre shall all Nations be blossed.

VERS 9. So then they which bee of Faith;

Mar

Sed quid furus yta furus yta furus for, com case a quare oquis, infaturi ipfine adverfa ifins ? Marcianthe Heteticke, tore out these source werses out of his Copy but as Hierome answers roundly: But what will it helpe him to have taken away these when those things that are left, doe sufficiently oppose his madinesse.

As Abraham, the Father of the faithfull, was institled, so also are his Sonnes. But Abraham was Institled by Faith: Therefore, Wee in the same manner. The proposition, though not in the Text, is plaine by an Argument, A pari, there is the same Governant, made to the Father, and the Sons; Gra. 17.7. I will be thy God, and of thy feed after thee. The Cove-

Covenant was the fame, and the fame " Condition; Rom. 4.11, 11. Hee received the fixed of Circumciston, a scale of the righteousnesse of thefaith, that be might be the father of al them that belerve, though they bee not circumesfed, that right confreffe might beimputed to them alfo; and the Father of Circumstion to them who are not of the Circumcifien enely, but also walke in the fleppes of that faith of our Parber Abraham which he had being yet uncircumei-

The Assumption is in the linth verse, cited from the Testimony of Woses, Geo. 15. 6. Hee believed in the Lord, and it was counted to him for righteousnesse.

Though

tren tib.

Terrida pa-

Though Abraham were abounding in workes, and plocious in his obedience: yet nonthem, but his faith is imputed. The conclusion in the feventh : moonen ice The old Latine renders that; Teknow; which wee read, Know yee : Thus referring it to their owne collection, which is onely amplified and cleared, in the two following verses: out of which I would onely touch at some observations.

1. The same way of Iufission was had both in the Old, as d the New Testament.

New ; as the Romish are work 19 Genderal a Reformed

mediwith the title of New-Gospellers: It was preached to abraham, in thy seed all Nations shall be blessed. And long before him, to Adam; in the promise of the same seed.

3. The New Testament hath much foundation in the Old, and therefore we may confirme the Dodrine of this by that: Against the froward cavills of fome, who in their reasonings wil not admit of those writings. But, chiefly, let mee not omit that which Lu. ther hath observed, How much the children or the beleeving Abraham, and the begetting Abraham differ. The begetting Abraham was a worker, the be-

M. Luth. in Gal, in loc. leeving was righteous: His faith was upon Christ, the obiect of his faith. We are blessed, not with the working, but the faithful Abrabam.

6. The fixt Argument is delivered in the tenth verse.

The Text.

RS. 10. For as many as are of the workes of the Law, are under the curse, for it is written; Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the booke of the Law to goe them.

A S, many as are of the workes of the Law, are un-

Argum, f.

under the curle of the Law: Therefore the Bleffing or Instificatio is not of works. The proposition is proved, Deut. 27. 26. That continucs not; Manere, is, Omniaimplere perfette, to continue or remaine in all, is to performe all perfectly; as a Quadrar, a Cubicke or square figure, to stand unmoved. The phrase in the beginning, is metaphoricall, The that are of the law, as it were retainers to the Law, and goe after thar. Nature loves that course, and the young man comes with such like defire, Mafter, what fall I doe, to inherit life ? Matth. 19.16. But fuch shal have repayed bitter wages, They are under the curfe.

उत्तर विशेषा । उत्तर विशेषा । Curse. The Papacy then is the way to perdition, because it fets men to that fervice. But are there not precepts in the Law? Have not those precepts promifes annexed? How then are fuch under the carfe! The works of the Law performed, put us not under the Curfe; but the workes attempted and failed in: for if wee could perfectly fulfill them, wee should bee faved by them. But the Law is not Doeable, which is not from the Law, or from God, but from our felves; and comes to passe, thus: Rom. 8.3. What the Law could not doe, it could not doe, in that it was weakethroughthe flesh. Let me observe:

1. The

I. The Artifice of Paul he pleads upon fure groud, It is written. All have recourse to some first principles, Phylicians to experimented Aphorismes, Lawyers to the Statute, Divines to the Canon: So our Apostle here, It is written. This he pleaded to Agrippa, as his warrant, Att. 26.22. I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, (aging none other things than those which the Prophets and Moses did fay fould come.

2. They are Vnder the Curse, that continue not in all; not onely that violate all, but any: So that Apostle, Iam. 2. 10. For whose-wer shall keepe the whole Law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. 3. The Curse named, is eternall; for it is opposed to Iustification and life, the eternall Blessing.

 G_3

Argum. 7.

7. The seventh Argument is in the 11. and 12.

The Text.

VERS. II. But that no man is Institute and in Limin the fight of God, it is evident; for the Just shall live by faith.

VERS. 12. And the Law is not of faith; but the man that doth them, shall live in them.

R Ighteousnesse is by Faith; the Law is not Faith:

Faith: Therefore Righteonfactic is not by the Law:
No man is lustified by the Law, Coram Deo, before, or in the fight of God; before men, workes may lustifie:
Was not Abraham our Father suffified by workes, when he had offered I faak his sonne upon the Altar? I am. 2.21.

Meniudge, and sommaccording to appearance; but faith the Apostle, Rom. 2.2.
Wee are fure that the sudgement of Godis, are discussive cording to Trush: Therfore they that live before God, that is, attaine life, must live by Faith. This hee citeth from the Prophet Habakuk, chap. 2. vers. 4. A Scripture which Paul hath seemed much to have deG 4 ligh-

lighted in, by his often Quotation of it, Wee cannot live by the Law; the reason is added. The Covenant of it, is to them that doe is . Yes shall keepe my Statutes and my Indgements, which if a man doe, he shall live in them; I am the Lord. Lev. 18.5. He that bath walked in my Statutes, and bath kept my indgements to deale truly be is tuft, bee fall furely live faith the Lord God, Ezek. 18. 9. But the Covenant is other to Faith; fothat Legall and Evangelicall Iuftification, cannot meet together, as this same Apostle disputes in another place, Rom. 11.6 And if by grace then is it no mere of works otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it bet of worker, then is it no more grace, otherwise worke is no more worke. It cannot be of both, it must be of one: Now it is not of that, therefore of this: Not of that, the Law; for it is expressed, in this support, No man is suffisfied by the Law, it is evident.

Atgum 8

8. The eighth Argument is in the thirteenth verse, and fourteenth.

The Text.

VERS. 13. Christ hath redeemed us from the Gunfe of the Law, being made a Curfe for us: for it is written, cunfed is every one that hangethen a Tree.

Gs: We

VVE are Instiffed by that, by which we have redemption from the Curse: But by faith in Christ we have redemption. Therefore by that are wee justified. The Minor proposition, is the maine of the 13. and 14. verses. The Confeiences of the Galations might have beene firaightned and burdened with the mention of the Curse; but are met, and sweetned with this; Conpedite, Salvares est, Be not difmayed, there is a way of freedom found, Christ hath Redeemed us. This Argument is the jumme of comfortable knowledge, drawn from the marrow of the Gospell, and delivers to our notice, thole great mysteries : Tr. Who hath redeemed us; Christ. His was the worke, and to him; by the glorified, is the prayle of the worke, Thou art worthy, for thou wast flaine, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blond, Rev. 5 8: 2. Whom he hath redeemed ; Vs : A. braham, and Mofes 100: None, but by him. 3. From what; The Curfe: from adive and paffive, from both wrath and paine. 4. How it was done . Hee was made a enrie: (to omic the variety of reading; and propriety of the word) He derived unto himfelfe what was our due, being made, of God, and of himfelfe;

r

C

e

C

d

Hier. in E. (4.50. VideAmby. in Loc. Et G propi us afpicias videbisChi ftum male. diaum rorum factum a quabus oca cifus eft. Crux enim alvat mis peccatum. & maledis Etum eft 14deorum. Septuag A. quilam, Theodotionem Make diffio dei eft,qui | N-1 fremfus eft. Symmachus ZHIA PYOP ter blafpbes miam deire (uspen well

Christe death is our life, his Croffe our Triumph, his Malediction our Bleffing. 5. To what end all was wrought : that the bleffing might come. The bleffing of Abraham could not come, unlesse the curse were taken away. The bleffing, is the grace of Recon. ciliation, Adoption, Justification and Life; which hee cals againe, mingration, the promife of the Spirit; Spirituall grace. 6. The meaner by which, His, Ours: faith. That mee might receive the promife of the Spirit through Faith

r. The greatnesse and hainous nature of sinne, such,

that

us

C,

h, ef.

211

he he

d

·fc

ef-

n.

ch

be

æ.

h,

MC

of

æ,

ib, that it made Chrift a Curfe, and put him to death. That speare, those nayles, were thrust in, not so much by the lewes malice, as by our Ginnes. At length, let us learne the price of them, and together to avoyd them. How dare wee with so much secure boldnesse, rush upon that which cost fo degrea rate, the bloud of Christ ? 2. The wifedome and goodnesse of Gods order, bleffing bythe Curle, sweetnesse from the Croffe of Christ. It was the wonder of Gods power, and the glory of that wonder, that in the Creation, Goddid produce, Aliquiden while, something out of nothing ; here is more.

(TNX ("brifi amaras
aquas vertit in dulcem faporem, et feenrim perditam, wiffa influenta
Lordavis levayit.
Hisrop.

Instification by Fairh.

more; good out of ill, heaven out of hell, the Bleffing to us, by Christa Corfe for us.

Argum. 9.

O TRATE.

A 13, 11%

the Colorest

.1101 7

9. The ninth and last Argument is added in the source following verses.

The Text.

VERS. 25. Brethren, 7 speak after the manner of men;
though it be ebut a mans Covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disamulleth, or addeth thereto.

VERS. 16. Now to Abraham and his sted, were the promises made. Hee Saith not, And to seedes, as of many, but as of one.
And to the Seed, which is Christ.

VERS.

VERS. 17. And this I fay, That the Covenent that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the Law which was fourthundred and thirty yeares after, cannot disannull, that it should make the promise of none effect.

V R S. 18. For if the inheritance be of the Law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

The Inheritace is of promise: Ergo, not of the Law. That is the argument and the conclusion in the 18, verie. Hee frames it by an occupanory Apostrophe, surning his speech, as it were, more directly to them

Instification by Faith.

them, to answer an Objeclion, they might make. obied. The Inheritance was of promise, before the Law was given; but after the Law given, it came to be of the Law : for the latter Sanction doth derogate from the binding of the former. Hee answers, Tistrue; unlesse the former were ratified or confirmed. In our Common-Law, we call a ratification or confirmation, a firengthening of an effate formetly had, and yet voydable, though not prefently voyd. But the Inheritance by promise was confirmed and foure hundred and thirty years before the Lawwas given; vafit6, PVest. par, prim Symb.

1.2-fest. 50.
Fitz de nat
Brafe, 169.
8.116.
Pipian, L.
pattum, H.
de políticie.

27. Brethren, whom before hee called Fooler, now hee cals Brechren: we must lay aside the spirit of bitterneffe; and though there may be a division of ludgements, yet there should not be of hearts. I speake after the manner of men, with humane and popular fimilitudes and expressions. Our Sermons may have fomewhat of the Scholler, and of the Orator, though wee speake Gods Word, yet in mans language, when citheretic matter or occasion requires it. If mans bee, much more is Gods Covenant inviolable.

doth not hold. Others indeed, cannot under mens

Co-

Covenants, but themselves by consent can.

Anf. Yet here it cannot be fo, for when Covenants are made to be perpetuall, if one breake, he is perfidiout; if both, they are inconfrant. God is neither: the one were to admit wickednesse, the other infirmity in him; either of which were to make him not God. The Law could not make voyd the promile; for, I. Ausia verwparis, The Covenant was before confirmed; 2, im set, of God; who hath tiberry, and Saveraignty. 3. Ein Mentry in Christ, the Mediatour of the Covenant, The promiles of the Law, and the Gospell, dee much differ. The

The promises of the Law are to particular persons, those of the Gospell to us in Christ. It comforts us abundantly in our infirmities; we neither expect nor receive the promises immediately from God, but from Christs hand, Again; Maries of Seds The MANCOPOLUTE, CXcludes merits. God gave the Promise to Abraham, though the Law were afterward given, it could not make the gift voide. If a rich man adopt another freely, and after some yeers lay fome commands upon him, yet it hinders nor, that the Adoption is free; for the Inheritance is not because of those commands.

There

There needes no more for the Argument; onely the Text of it doth occalion a double question; one Hystoricall, another Chronologicall.

The Hystoricall Question, is, what Ratification the Apostle speaks of? We read of three Confirmations: 1. One by a fæderall Sacrifice, Gen. 15.18. when upon Gods command, A. brabam had offered, and divided his Sacrifice, in that fame day the Lord made a Covenant with Abraham. 2. Another, by a generall expression, Genes. 17.1, 2. when Abraham was ninety yeares old and nine, the Lord appeared and faid; I am God All-Sufficient, walke before before mee, and bet upright.

1

3. A third by a solemne oath, Cen. 22.16. By my selfe have I sworne, saith the Lord, In blessing I will blesse thee. Here the first of these is signified: For, I. Though a Promise were made, there is no mention of a Covenant before this. 2. And from this wee have the right number of yeares, after mentioned.

The Chronologicall queftion depends upon that former, how the years may be computed. Steven names but 400, yeares, All. 7.6.
fo was the prophecie, Gen.
15.13. Hierome hath troubled himselfe, and left the knot so fast as he found it:
So hath Saint Austin. No

Epift.ad Dam
Queft.47.
in Exed &
De Civit
Dei.lib.16
cap.24.

leffe

leffe Genebrard and Dunus, reckoning from the difcent of raceb; and others, from Abrahams departure out of Haran, Gen. 12.4 But if we recken from his 85. yeare, we shall find a right Com.

putation.

From that time, till the birth of Ifaac, were 15. yeares: And Abraham was an hundred years old when his sonne Isaac was borne unto him, Gen. 21.5. From the birth of Isac, till the birth of his fonne lacob, were 60 yeares: And Ifaac was threefcore yeares old when fhee bare them, Gen. 25.26. From the birth of laceb, till his discent into Egypt, were 130 yeares. And lacob faid unto Pharaob, the dayes of the yeares of my pilgrimage are an 130 yeares : Gen. 47 9. From lacebs discent unto his death, were 17. yeares : And lacob lived in the Land of Leggs fivesseene yeares, Gen. 47. 28. From his death, till the death of lofeph, were 53. yeares; which appeares from fome copared Texts, Gen. 41. 46. 45. 6 50.26. From the death of lefeph, rill the birth of Mojes, were 75 yeares, as is garhered from received Chronologers. And from his birth, till the departure of Ifrael from Lgypt, were eighty yeares : And Mofes was four-Core yeares old, when he pake to Pharash, Exed. 7.7. Now the peoples departure, and were the same yeare; That the sirst Month, the source teenth Day, This the third day of the third moneth These being summ'd, make up the proposed number.

I have done with the two former generall parts of the Apostles method;

1. The Explication of the Doctrine of Free Institutesation. 2. The Confirmation of it, by testimony of Scripture, and by nine Arguments.

Applie 3.

I now proceede to the third general part, the Application of this Doctrine.

Hee applyes it by discovering the Vie and Abrogation of the Law. Which he performeth in this manner. 1. By

- i. By clearing two Objections against what hee had delivered.
- 2. By a more plaine difcusting of the Question, concerning the Law; how abrogated, how usefull.

1. Hee cleares Objections; They are two:

1. The first Objection, and the Solution of it, in the 19, and 20, verses.

The Text.

VERS. 19. Wherefore then freeth the Law it was added because of Transgressions, till the Seed should come, to whom the promise was made, and it was predained by Angels in the band

Obiell 1

Aug BA

The use of the Law.

of a Mediatour.

VERS. 20. Now a Mediatour, is not a Mediator of one, but God is one.

'He obiection may bee thus: If the Inheritance be by Promise, what need the law then bee given fo long after? So Augustine understands it. But let us fee it in the fuller force. Ti our phus? To what end then ferveth the Law ? Either Righteousnesse is by the Law, or the Law is in vaine. But the Law is not in vaine. Therefore, Righteournes comes by it. This is the false pleading of Iufliciaries. If, fay they, the Law is not to Justific, why then is it given? Why are

Aug lib.1. Retra.6,24. we burdened with it? Why bound to obey it? The envious workemen in the Vineyard, could not endure that fuch as had wrought fo much as they, should yet receive the same wages: Why have we toiled the whole day, if others, as well as wee, receive every one a penny? Merit-mongersendure not the Doctrin of afree grace, but murmure against the Gospell, as the Chiefe-Priests against Christs Sermon. Hee had told them, Mat. 21.31. Verily I fay unto you, That the Publicans, and the Harlots goe into the kingdome of God before you. This they cannot beare, They perceived that he spake of H2 them, them, and would have laid hands upon him, but that they feared the multitude; Mat. 21.45,46. What? Have wee beene fo first in our Legall Observances? Have wee worne fo long Phylacteries ? Shall Publicans? Shall pooremen? Shall finners ? Shall ignorants? Shall women bee equall with us ? Then the Law is to no purpose; and o as little purpose is our Observation of it. Then let us finne ; let us breake the Law , let us doe nohing; nay, let us doe any thing, if this Doctrine may oce Preached. When our Saviour Preach'd, they faid, hee made men Rebels unto Cafar : So when wee Preach Preach Free Iustification, they say, This is to make men lawless, to make them altogether carelesse, to hinder good workes. If the Law Iustifie not, then wherefore serveth it? This is the objection.

But the Apostle answers, They make not a sufficient enumeration, for there is a third end of the Law, by them not mentioned. This, Logicians call, A fallacy of the Consequent; They are not true, but fallacious in their arguing. So the Papifts are wont to wrangle: If workes doe not Iustifie, why are they then done? If the Sacraments conferre not grace, and ex opere operate, by the very worke done:

Fallacia conjequent tis, vel non caufe. done; why are they adminifred? To what are they profitable? If Christs body be not really present in the Sacrament, if it be not orally eaten, to what purpose is the Supper? Is it but a bare naked figue? These are Paralogismes, captious argumentations. Is there no end, because not that end which wee will needs appoint. The law doth not lustifie, ergo, tisin vaine: A vain Confequence. My money cannot luftifie mee, my eyes cannot, my hands cannot : are they all therfore in vaine! Or shall I caft a vay my mony pull out my eyes, or cut off my hands ? Away with fuch frowardnes. All have their proper uses. Mony for traffique, eyes for fight, hands for action, workes for gratitude, the Law for direction, Faith for Iustistication. The Law is good, if it bee used as Law, if it keepe within its owne bounds. As things are diffinct, fo are their uses. The Sunne hath use and operation futable to it selfe; So the water, fo the earth; the Sun fends influence and refretheth, the water cooles and moystens, the earth gives encrease. So the Law hath it'sufc.

It was added,] resorred, it was let or added to, that is, it was adjected or added unto the Promise. God gave the Promise, that the

H4 In-

Posta, pro Apposta (i) adi: Eta pro missioni...

Cry ... om 4. Hier,tom 9 -Latam Superbiénti populo,us anonia gratiam charitatis nife bumiliat acciperenon poffet, & fine bas gratia maile mode pracepta legu im pleret tranfereffi. onebumiliaretur, nt quer eret grotiam, nec fe [wis meritis fatuum fieri onina . retur, ut ef fet mon in fua potefta te deviribus iuftus fed In manu mediatoris iuftificantis impium.

Inheritance should bee by that; afterwards he added the law, as an Accessory; Not that the Inheritance should be by it, but for another end.

It was added, Tor naga Barum xees, because of Transgression] The Law was not unprofitable or purposelesse, but for transgrellions; which Chryfoftome and Hierom understand, that it might keepe and restraine them from fin; Augustine, that it might teach them to know and acknowledge their finnes. So the Apostie frequently, Rom. 3.19, 20. Now wee know what foever things the Law faith, it faith to them toho are under the Law : that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world

1 22 1

I'V ARIMS.

. vol mi

may become guilty before God; for by the Law is the know-ledge of sinne. Rom. 4. 15. Where no Law is, there is no transgression. Rom. 7.7.1 had not knowne sinne; but by the Law; for I had not knowne last, except the Law had said, I hou shalt not lust; Briefly, the Law was added, it might be inflar special, as a glasse to discover the deformed.

that it might be, inflat free ni, as a bridle to curbe us from our forward venturings.

3. To punish sinne by Threats, that it might bee, inflar verbers, as a scourge to correct our wantonnes.

H 55 Curfed

Curfe? is every one that re-irritation, that it might be, instar stimuli, as a spurre to irritate; But this is by accident, for the Law is holy, and the Commandement is hely, and suft, and good, Rom. 7.12. The Law then causeth sinne to encrease, Non causaliter, sed consequentive, Consequently, not causally; and that, Non exparte legis, but, nostri; through our desect, not from the nature of the Law. For:

more greedily which is forbidden, like a River which mak sa greater poyle, and overflowes with more violence when it meets with a

fone

Chryf in loc. Gennad. in loc. Lyranus, stone or banke in the way. Whether it bee that our defires are more toward fuch things as are without our power, as things prohibited are; neglecting what is easie and soone accomplished or whether it be only from the nature of our human passions, which the more they are suppres. fed, the more they are inflamed ; like fire kept in, which breakes forth the more violently: Or whether it beeonely from the perverineffe of mans will, and his meere opposition to the will of God. Whether it be from any, or all of thele; we find it in our nature, Nitimur in vetitum, cupimufq; negata, wee tend to Perernumer 78. Minus peccati eft, fi. quod non: probibetur, admittas. Orig: Amb,lib.de lob.cap.4. Aug lib.t. qu. ad Simptis qu.1. to forbidden things, and the Law by accident encreases sinne.

2. The Law by accident chereafeth finne, because then wee sinne with aggravation. His sinne is greater who offends against a knowne will, than he that out of ignorance doth it.

of finnes is multiplied, by reason of the variety and multiplied number of precepts given by the Law. The Apostle often mentioneth these ends of the Law, and with some phrases, not easily perspicuous. Rom. 7.8. Sinne taking orcassion by the Commandement, wrought in mee all manner of Concepiscence. The burning

Cain, lib.z. de poc. Wyperius; Tolet; an house may be the occafion of the building it anew; and a rub in the way may occasion the turning out of the path. Yet neither of these are so in themselves, but are taken as occasions : So our corrupted natures, take occafion to finne, when the law of commandments intends the deltruction of our building, and, the hindring of our courfe. So the Gaugre. na, and the Elephantiafis, are the worfe for medicine, It followes,

Added because of transpereffrom, transper with an entire and till the feed floud come;
Who the Seed is, was he fore declared, verf 16. Hee fatth not, And to Seeds, as of many.

Ambr.lis.

many, but as of one; And, To singuan out, of ist Yests . To the Seed, which is Christ.

But doth the comming of Christ terminate the duration of the Law ? Doth the Law ceale to reveale, to restraine, to punish, to irritate finne, after Christ is come ? How then is our Saviours witnesse of himselfetive? Thinke not that ! am come to destroy the Law or the Prophets, I am not come to destroy but to fulfill, Mat. 5. 17. Is not the Law eternall ? Or why is the mention of fuch a period?

Yes: The Law continues, and the use continues to the worlds end ; but neither in a Mofacall manner. Thus what the Apostle speaks,

speakes, It was added till the Seed; we may understand.,

1. Simply, concerning all Lawes iudiciall, ceremoniall, morall, as Mofai call. The Law did convince by Rites, and by precepts, as by them: So the handwriting of Ordinances was against us. I frael was a stiffe-necked people, mode frenis, modo calcaribus indigens, therefore the yoake was laid upon them, which those Fathers were not able to beare, Acts 15. 10. Thus they cease; for Christ hath blotted out the Hand-writing of Ordinances that was against us, which was contrary tous, and tooke it out of the may nailing it tobis Croffe, Col. 2. 14. In the Law, there was

t.

3-0

le

S,

a full revelation of finne, but a darke revelation of grace. In the Gospell, there is a more plentifull discowery of both, of sinne, and grace.

of the morall Law; It is an universal and perpetuall glasse, yet somewhat abrogated, in regard of coaction & condemnation, when the Seed comes.

To whom the Promise was made, a implearus, He speaks of the Seed to whom was the Promise; But how are the promises said to bee made to Christ; seeing rather they belong to us? Some Greeke Castigations, instead of a Castigations, instead of a Castigations, To whom, doe read in Iran.lib.5.

cap.21. Si
usque ad
ad Christi ventum da ta lex est, quid eam
longius ultra tempus prasxum proserre
conaris?
Chrys-

Mujeul ja lac.

Quod promissum, The Promife which was made. So there were no Question; bur the Originall, is, P.Cur, referring to the word, nanegrous, The Promise which was made to Abrahams Seed, verf 16. Inthy Seed, that is Chrift, fhall all the Nations of the earth bee bleffed. It is faid, made unto christ; either because for his lake and merit, or becauseuntous, in Christ as the head; in him is our hope and health, there is no other name. To Christ properly and primarily is the Promise, wee have else no interest in it, nor title to it. It followes:

Andit was ordained by Angels.] Thus hee prevents an obiection; If the Law were added onely for such a period; it is then vile, and we may say, the Law is sinne, Rom. 7.7. This is answered, by describing those two Elogies of the Law, commended from the manner of its promulgation, Ordained by Angels, and in the bands of a Mediatour.

Obie -

Ad agis:

Chryf.in loc.
Amb.in loc.

First, It was ordained by Angels, Naires being put for Summia, Ordination for Ministration; so Seeven useth the word, Acts 7. 53 in Summia application of Angels. Chrysostome restraines it to Moses and Aron; Ambrose some what enlargeth the sense to all the Prophets untill John the Bap-Rollocus in Gal. 3.

Baptist. That learned Rolloc. understands it, both of the Angels, and of Mofes. But it feems more properly meant of the Angels; who, 1. attended upon the mount, fervants in ordinary attendance, who constantly wait in Gods court. 2. Witnessed the delivery of the promulged law to the hand of Mofes. 3. It is most likely, there was used an Angels voyce, when the Sound of a Trumpet, and the voice of words was beard, Heb. 2. 19. And therefore the same Episteler cals it, The word spoken by Angels, Hebr. 2.2. As Princes deale and conferre by their Commisfioners and delegated instruments; so might they personate God; and may be said to ordaine the law, because the worke of the chiefe Agent is applyed to the Instrument; as in another case, if Timothy continue in sound Dostrine, he shall save himselfe, and them that heare him; I Tim. 4.16.

It was ordained by Angels,

Therefore,

of God, of great price, and to be valued by us, at a fit and high rate: Though it be inferior to the Promife, it excels all other Lawes, and the rather in the manner of the ministration.

breach of such a Law, that had so glorious an ordination: The Angels were wit-

Was lex profantion all squanuis promiffione inferior. witnesses, and will bee revengers: Steven speakes this to the aggravation of their sinne, They received it from Angels, and have not kept it. The company sometimes restraines a sinfull purpose; There is an invisible Company to behold us; Let be our feare, or rather our sincerity, to preserve the Law without breaches

3. Those Angels that were faithfull to give the Law, will be ioyfull to witnesse, our Repentance, when wee have broken it. Our Saviour hath told us, There is toy in heaven at the conversion of a sinner. An untaught sigh, or a tearefull drop of a penitent, is pleafing fing to God and Angels:

4. Lastly, if upon our neglects or contempts, we breake that law, and are not penitet for our breach, wee may, wee must justly feare and expect to bee made a publicke shame be fore the faces of those glorious Angels, in the day of account and retribution. For as the Law-giver was accompanied, so shall the ludge, He shall come with the multitudes of his holy Angels.

In the hand of a Mediator. This is the second Elogy of commendation of the law, Ordained in the hand of a Midiator. In Application, The same phrase is used by Steven, of the Ministry of Moses, in bris bringing the Law; and in both adouble Hebraisme. The Præposition, In, ofttimes fignifies an instrument, and intermediate cause : Hof. 12.10. 1 bave u-(cd similitudes in the hand, or, by the Ministery of the Prophets. Hag. 1.1. The word of the Lord came In the hand of Haggai. Againe, the word Hand is put lometimes for a primary præcipient Cause, Is not the Hand of leab with thee in all this? 2 Sam. 14. 19. Sometimes for a cause, though præcipient, yet fecundary. And ordinarily for an infirument, fo here; Bythe minifryof a mediator.

a.

as he

he

17

7.

H

m!

ol if

iD

The word weins is diverfly translated: By some

Se-

In manu
prophetarumafimu
latus fum.
Vul, Lat.
In manu
Chaggai.

*Tertul.pax fequefira. Virg. b Caietan.

Pox nova

falfa.

Tollet.

LTafnue.

LIBARA

Not nuuoitus, of nuuo ever,
but meoitus o (br) fost.
Theoph.
Occum.
Ambr.
Primasus.
Lombar.
Thomas.
Gaguans.

Sequester, one that stands disposed, yet indifferent to both parties. By fome, bDi. miator, a parter of stakes betweene two: but the 1e. faite corrects the Cardinal, and is bold to call it, Anem and false word. By some, Interceffour, but fuch an one, refers burto one party, as the Tribune of the people to the Senate. The word that wee have rendred to us, A Mediator or a Midde er, dotti most expresse it. The Current of most funnes, to expound this of Christ : bur yeelding to those Antients their owne Due, yet I cannot fee how that lense can free it selle from an unthought touch of Arrianisme, to make make Christ an instrument and inferior to the Angels, by whom it was ordained, We will rather admit it as spoken of Moses: For the Law was given by Mofes, 10h. 1.17. While the Apo. file preferres Chrift before Moses, He is the Atediatour of a better Covenant: Heb.8. 6. Hee feemes to allude to what the people defired, Exed. 20.19. Speak thou with us & we wil heare but let not God speak, lest we dye. And to what Atofes concerning himselfe, witnesleth, Den. 5.5. I flood betweene the Lord and you, at that time, to shew you the word of the Lord. Neither doth this interpretation want Antiquity, for we havefound it in Epiphanius,

. n. als

1

0

C

ot

E'ya ishkuriri pecer Kupis ni dra udcorupar.

and

Gennad. apua Gr. Scholia. Egipban. Haref 66. ContraManich. Theodor. a Pet AHT. parad.85. Richeamus de Sanflis, cap. 18. Salmero In 1 Tim. d fp. 17. Lind. Pan.1.3. 6.30.

and in Gennadius, among the Greeke Scholiasts in the workes of Epiphanius.

The Papifts doe uniustly inferre from hence, That the Angels or Saints may bee Mediatours, because Meses was; for,

be a Mediator, they never had commission.

whom he was a Mediator, these have no sellowship with us.

3. He was but once, and in one thing, These are pretended such, at al times, and in all things.

4. He was a Mediator to the people from God, these are imploied to God from the people. In all of which which they faile in their ground, & derogate much from the fole Mediatour. Thip of Christ, How farre is such a Doctrine from the least shadow of reason; Must not a Mediatour bee Medius, betweene God and man But so an Angel, or a man cannot. And Christ himselfe, it hee had beene onely God, or onely man, could not have been a Mediator. It follows in the Text:

Now a Mediator is not of one, in My warms, it is in ism, I They that interpret Christ to be the Mediator, are disquieted for a fit sense. Some give this, If Christ bee a Mediator, he cannot bee of one, but must needs bee of של עספסא נים descentos il & MONCH 9405 KK " שלים של 318 x 0's-Sparray. Alb de Tri dial s. Conflit. Ap. 1.2.6. 28. Cbryf. ac panit 5. Homil. Ignatius ep. ad philad. et ep ad Autiech. OF STREET AND द्रात्तर विद्याति Seds Els isir, france elabrol. OT SIC WAL שופוזנץ שוצי, MED EN PA

two

two at least; but God is one, but one; Therefore he must bee Mediator, as of God, fo of men alfo. But what is this, either to the place, or the mind of Paul? Others please themselves in this; A Mediator is not of one, but of two at the leaft, if then Christ bee a Mediator, as indeed he is. It is of God and mon, yet fo, that Christ the Mediator being true God, it followes not that there are two Gods, of which, one gives fatistaction to the other; But Christ is one and the same God, with the Father and the holy Spirit. But for what reason should they imagine the Apostle here to infert the doctrin doctrine of the Trinity. That of Ambrofe, of the two people; and that other of fomeothers, of the two natures, are more fubrile, yet of as little agreement to S. Pauls intent, as the former. They have intangled themfelves in their owne conceptions: But understanding it of Mofes, wee may findea more open passage from among these difficulties, in this more genuine exposition. A Mediator is betweene two, or more parties that are at difference: Now the Cause of a Difference, is some transgreffion done either by both against each other, or onely by one of the parties against the other. Now the I 3

1

Mediator non eft unius tantum 4 populi, fed duerum, id eft, Gentilis ac Inda. ici,9405 cbriftustum: inter fe co. pulavit Inblataai. Ain aionis ratione tun utrumq; Deo conci. liavit, interim tamen Chrifties ef MBHSAC VE. rus Deus. Ambrof.

the transgression or offence cannot be in God, for God is one, hee is alwayes the same, ever inst.

Thus it appeares how this belongs to the former Argument, The Law was added for transgressions. The people were at oddes with God, Mose is the Mediatour, or Minister of that Law, which shewes transgressions, and makes the people to Iustifie God, and condemne themselves as transgressours against him.

Before I leave this, let mee make a double application from the main thing intended in the Objection and the Answer, namely, the Observation.

1. Of the use of the Law, le was added for Transgref-

2. Of the continuance of that use, Added till the Seed came.

1. Concerning the use of the Law: The same phrase noteth it to be,

I. Civill.

2. Spirituall-

Transgressions, to restraine sinne: yet; by this we may presse the Apostolike Argument, That Righteeusness cannot be by the Law; for when the Law restraines us from being sinfull, it doth not therefore make us not sinfull, or truly righteous; but rather sheweth us to bee unrighteous, and for that cause wee need a Law of restraint. A man that abstaines from murder or theft, for feare of the halter or the racke, is not therefore leffe murderous or theevish in his disposition, but cares not venture upon the ftrianesse of the Law. A Beare is a ravenous and devouring creature; when it is tyed in a Chain, it cannot devoure; Is it therefore not a Beare, or lesse nay, the chaine rather argues it to be cruell. So, we we fee fierce Mastiffs musled, and tyed up, not that they are gentle, but the chaine is an argument of their fierceneffe. If man had not beene finfull, there had not needed a Law. Now

Now restraint by the Law, is not righteousnesse, but a proofe of our unrighteousnesse, and shewes that wee would be evill, if we either could ordurst.

2. The Spirituall ufe, is for transgressions, to in. crease sinne to our sight; to discover unto us, the nature of it, and of mifery consequent. The Law, as another strong Hercules, fets upon, and fubdues the Monfer of the presumption of our owne Rightcousnesse. It is an ordinary and most dangerous disease, to bee frong inthe opinion of our owne Something. Men that are not notoriously evill, thinke themselves holy: Such was the Pharifies I.C. vaunt, vaunt, I thanke God I am not as other men, non as this Publican; because hee was no extortioner, no drunkard, hee thought himselse exactly what hee should bee. The Law is to remove us from fuch boattings, to meltour swellings, to destroy our strengths: 15 not my word like a fire, faith the Lord, and like an hammer that breaketh the Rockes in pieces ? ler.23.29. Our hearts are those Rockes, we stand high, and exalted against God, till the hammer batterus, and bring us into shivers. Wee are proud in our standings, and therefore the Law is inits right place, when it speaks Com. mand and Terror, and faith to the amazement of the conscience, See what thou hast done, and what thou art like to fuffer. Wee may consider this somwhat better in the observation and application of that story, of the manner how the Law was given. The people of Israel were an holy people, they had, according to the precept, sanctified themselves, washed their cloathes, abstained from their wives. Their fault was, they were but too holy, they had it too much in their thoughts & tongues, We are an holy people, the people of God.

They must bee driven from this, if ever they bee fit for an humble service.

The

The Law must bee given with terror that when they should fee and heare and conceive nothing but horrors, fire, and smoake, and clouds, and thunders, and earthquakes; ratling and confused noyses, flames darkely, yet dreadfully appearing through pillers of smoake, they might, affrightedly, runne from the foot of the mountaine. The Text tels us, Exed 20.18. And all the people saw the thundrings of the lightnings, and the noyfe of the Trumpet, and the Mountaine (moking, and when the people fam it, they removed, and stood a far off; and they said unto Mofes, Speake thou with us. Now they fee their cleanling and ! and their holinesse to bee nothing worth : Before, they were holy, very holy; now they finde, they were not able to abide in his prefence, Ah Lord, how wonderfull err thou, and fearefull in thy speakings! O royall law, and powerful Law-giver ! There was a Light upon Sinai, but it was onely fuch a flame, whereby they might fee themselves tobe miserable. The Law and the Goffell are both Lights; the Light in the Gospell, is to shew us Christ; 'tis as the starre which led the Sages unto Betblem, and thewes us the place where the Babelyes, but the Light in the Law is not without fmoake, or as Light-

Lightning from a cracke of Thunder, & to that end, that wee may difeerne our sclves wretched. The Law and the Gespell are both voyces; the voyce of the Gofpell is a fill fmall voyce, it cheares up in speaking; the voyce of the Law, is a wind, and earthquake, and thunder, 1 Kin. 19.11, 12. And both the fire, and the noyfe, is, that we might be hambled, for then wee are firred for mercy. The whole need not the Physitia but they that we fick; Christ came not to call the righteons, but finners to reperace. We canot expect help fro Christ, til we besiek, til we be finners! Ah, wecare too found, we are too holy; wonder not at fuch expreffions:

fions: Wee are too holy, and while wee are chus righteous, Christ doth not call us. Hee comes to fave finners, that is his worke ; till wee bee finners, Christ cannot come unto his worke? If ever we would have mercy, let us fee that we need it. If we dare challenge-mercy, we know we shall bee repulsed. Come humbly unto God in the acknowledgemet of wants. and doubt not of supply. If a Beggar tel me, though hee crave a penny, yet hee hath mony enough in his purfe, meat enough in his bagge, and friends that wil provide for him, he moves me to no compassion; but if his diffressery, and he pleads pleades himselse moneylesse, and breadlesse, and friendlesse, and altogether helplesse, I cannot tell how to deny him. God would have us such supplicants;

wee are strengthlesse, and meritlesse, and altogether
worthlesse; Mercy, Mercy, enely. This the Law drives us to, and then wee are fit for a Bounty.

now let us see the continuance of that use: It mas added till the Seed should come. As the phrase is in another case; If the dayes of the Law bad not beene shortned, no man could have beene saved: But the tyranny is now limitted, and wee, by Christ, may cry Villory, Liberty. We may understand it,

1. Literally, The Messiah come, is the end of the Law; All the Prophets, and the Law, prophecyed untill

10hn, Mat. 11. 13.

2. Spiritually, The Law stayes in force, but till it hath madeus tremble; now we leave the Law, and lay hold upon the Faith. one Deepe calleth upon another, Pfal. 42. 7. When all the water-spouts and billowes are gone over us, then [hall our praier be unto the God of our life. The Law, when it hath acted its owne part, must goe off the Stage; if it have humbled us, and brought us low unto the Duft, The act is done, let it with-draw into the Tyto be under der frod of the law as given by Moses, not as it is a new commandement given by Christ, as you shall heare hereafter.

ring-

*ie, the pædagogy of the law.

* i. c. To be led on ftil and onely by ring-roome to be difapparelled. Let Mulicke now, and Grace enter. But * the Law will not eafily give place, it would be working fill. When wee are humbled to lownesse, to nothing, yet then we begin to enquire, What Shall we doe? What Shall ye doe? It is lug. gested by the usurping Law, and the proud enquiry of Nature not enough humbled. We are not now to doe, it is Faiths Scene. We ordinarily meet with this Imposture from the Divels both malice and fubtilty. Take an inflance, A man that hath lavisht out his time of health. without heed, or care, or conscience of his wayes; when when he is laid weake and ficke upon his pillow, and his conscience begins busily to prefent unto him his former fins, and the wrath due unto his finne , when nowhe fees himfelfe finful, and therfore miferable, & apprehends Death and Hel ready to swallow him, hee fals upon this refolve, I have loofely mif-spent my timeheretofore, but if I live, and recover frength, I will mend, and endevour to ferve God better, Mark, I pray, he thinkes not at all of Faith, but onely of his Workes, as if he were ftill under the pædagogie of Mofes. Ah deluded man, fee at length the policy of that Tyrant, to draw you you from Releeving; hee would fet you onely on working. Let mee speake a bold word, but a true one, The remedy is as dangerous as the difeafe; for this is to ule the padagogie of the Law ftill, when the Seed should come. A man in that case, upon the apprehension of wrath, should speed him. felfe to Christ, and when hee hath gained affurances there, then his former refolve, viz. of mending his life, would bee very feafonables for without this method, hee feekes his Righteouseesse but from himfelfei Belaved, our taske is then at the hardest, when we thinke tis done. Be acquainted with Satans me thods : you thods: When the confcicace is very much humbled, & a promise of grace is offered, the diffressed readily replyes, Ah, but I have no mony to purchase it withall. Suffer not these Law-thoughtsto dishonor Christs freenesse. Hee offers freely, Come and buy without money , without price. Ahybut I have no friends to deale for me ! It is the Law that speakes still; but he is a friend to the friend_ lesto, in him the father lesse find mercy. But will he respect such a poore worthleffe wretch as I am ? If I had any thing, if I had but that Haith you speake of, 1 could come more confi dently to him, and expect perforperformances. They are proud reasonings, under the shew of Humility, and 'tis the humor of Ephraim, Wherewith shall I come before the Lord? The Law loves Soveraignty, and would still have us his, according to the Apostles phrase, To bee of the workes of the Law. But the Law of Moses serveth but till the Seed comes; when saith and grace appeares, let Moses tesigne the Chaire unto Christ.

I have spent more lines than I intended, upon this application, and the clearing of the first Objection.

Obica. 2

2. The second Objection, and the Solution of it, are contained in the source folfollowing verses, the 21,

The Text.

or bipers our Selevalered

VERS. 211 Is the Law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a Law given which could have given life, verily righteens front have beene by the Law:

VERS. 22. But the Scripture hath concluded all under sinne, that the promise, by Faith of Iesus Christ, might be given to them that beleeve.

VERS. 23. But before Faith came, we were kept under the Law, shut up unto the Faith, which should afterVERS. 24. Wherefore the Law was our Schoolemafter, to bring us unto Christ, that we might be sufficed by Faith.

Obiell.

arrive the promites of F the Law bee for Transgreffions, then it is against the Promise : The argument is from the contrary effects of the Law and Promise; The Law mani. fells finne, terrifies, condemnes: The Promife offers grace, quites, faves; fo they are one against the other. But the Law is not a. gainst the Promise: Thercfore the Law is not for Transgressions, and that ground failing, which was the Medium, or third, put In,

In, unto the solution of the former objection, then it will follow, If the Law be not for Transgressions, which was supposed in that answer, then either the Law Iustifies, or it is in vaine. But the Law is not in vaine; Therefore Iustification is by the Law. This is the strength of the Objection.

But the Apostle answers,

and yet sharpely, by rejeding such an absurdity:

God forbid.

2. Ratione, Soundly, by good argument. It would rather follow, That the Law were against the Promise, if righteousnes were by the Law. And so his Re.

frands thus; If righteoufnesse should be by the law, it could not be by promise. But the Law is not against the Promise. Therefore it cannot sustifie; Righteousnesse cannot bee by the Law.

God forbid. Because wee failed in the condition, shall God faile in the promise, that the Inheritance should no longer be by it, but by our observation of a stricter added Law? God forbid; for our sinnes cannot hinder Gods promise; nor is God a lyar, because we are lyars. Though wee change, he is immutable.

Againe, we may observe fomething more, in one phrase phrase used by Pant, To give life, is of the fame fignification as to Iustifie. If there had beene a Law which could have given tife; that is, which could have Iustified. Wee may finde one by the other; if wee bee truly Iunified, we shall find our selves truly quickened A. way with a dead faith, 'tis the flaine of our Doctrine, of Free lustification. There are many plead, The wirnesse of Bloud, that they flay upon the merits of Christ, yet can find no witnesse of water, the life of Sanctification. But both are iouned by the Apostle, and must bee found in the conscience; There are three that beare witnesse in earth, K 2

The Spirit, and Water, and Bloud, and these three agree in one, I loh. 5.8.

Hee proceedes to prove that the law could not give life:

ir. From the contrary effect of it, The Scripture hath concluded all under sin.

2. From the accidentary use of it, That the Promise by faith might be given.

1 The contrary effed of the Law, I be Scripture bath concluded all under sinne.

The Scripture, in resent It is referred unto God, Rom.

11, 2 God hath concluded all under unbeleefe: The concoyned lense is, God in the Scripture. Some understand it of all Scriptures; others say, this in reason, is that cbry in loc.

that of yeinus, the killingletter, mentioned elewhere. Rather the Scriptures of the old Covenant. By the way, wee may obferve, that God, the Law, the Scripture, those words are promiseuously used; How then doe the Papifts call the Scripture a dead letter? What is fo honoured by the Spirits witnesse, we may lafely receive as the ludge of controversies. Honordhar tholly chry Spatte in with for much zeale, Wherefore I entneate and befeech you all, that not much heeding what this or that man thinkes of these things, you would require all these things out of the Scriptures. What could have been spoken by K 3 us

Panigarolla
lect. Difcep Cathol.
Carranza.
Conv. 1.
Lorichius in Fortal baref. 5.

4 0 mase maka x Lunu יוני שומות אותו LINE, OF H-Exemples Saving To Sen dixes TREE TOTOP חשפת דעון yearan MUTH E'-नवरीय गाम Sairente. Cbryf. in 2 ad Cor He-

mil. 12.

a wonder, the lefuites proclaime him not, a Lutheran, an Hereticke.

Hath concluded under sin, outer source, The Scriptures have shewed men their guilt, by which sight they are so imprisoned and settered, that they can see no cleape, unlesse there bee a freedome by Christ.

The Scripture shuts up,

thus,

15. The Womans Seed shall bruise the Serpents head Gen.
22.18. In Abrahams Seede shall all the Nations of the earth be blessed: These imply that wee are under the Curse, which in this manner, and thus onely is to be bee removed.

2. By the Law : Dent. 27. 26. Cursed be hee that confirmeth not all things written in the Law to doe them. But is God the cause of sinne, because hee shuts all under finne? No: The Judge who imprisons a malefactor, is nor the cause of hisoffence; his is an act of luftice, because hee hath offended. But how then doth he fout up? Is it because he onely permitted? That is not enough. Or that by his Law hebpronounced them guilty? That is not enough. Or Decreed it onely for the glory of his grace to others? That is but too much. But heed punished them with their own gives K 4 and sorig.Ocd.

glof.
Tollet.
Gorrban.
Chryf.
Hier.
Occum.

Aug cont Jul. 1 5 6-3 and fetters. The stare of nature is a state of bondage; men as they are sinfull, so they are shut up under sin, punished with it, and kept unto wrath. Like an imprisoned malesactor, burthened equally with his memory, and his feare, while the one presents sinne, the other execution; so is man under the law.

concluded all.) The word is large, and fignifics both men and actions, withings created unto mans use, follow the state & condition of man; he being shur up under sin and misery, they, in a manner, are imprisoned with him. Vnto them that are defiled, nothing is pure, Tit. I.

Vide Bez.

unto vanity, and not of its own minde, Rom. 8.20. This being the contrary effect of the law, to shut up all, it could not give life.

2. The accidentary use of it, is, That the Promise might be given. By it selfe, and properly, the law is for transgressions; but by accident, being that up, we are sent by it unto Christ for deliverance.

That the Promise: 'Tis a. Metonymie; The promised Blessing.

By Faith: This referres not to the next word before, The Promise by Faith, but to a word following, but daretur, That the Promise might be given by Faith.

K 5

BY

Duoniam Indei ne (entiebant quidem/na peccasa non Centientes antem, nec defidera. bant remif fionem: deait legens que prodes ret vuine. TE, que medicum requirer ente Cory ..

By Faith of Lesus Christ: A limitation of Faith, from the proper object of it. As faith is, upon aword, and living practike Faith is upon a word of promise, fo special Instifying Faith, is upon a word of promife of lesus Christ; it laies hold onely upon that.

Might be given] The law is not contrary to the promife. Wee are not thut up, that the promise might be verted, taken away, or hi ndered ; bur that way mig ht be made for it, and promifed bleffing the e given; for fubor.

mighth dinates an not contrary.

that believe, To them. hem that are: wie antioned To L refore nor foqualified, the שח-

unto all. The Promise is not Vniversall, therefore, neither is redemption.

This use of the Law, is, but ex accidenti; 'tis in its owne way, when it reveals unto us our evill, when it terrifies the conscience with fuch fensible apprehensions, when it kils: But all this, that God may raise us up againe. The Law was from Sinai with thunder, but that the people might be made bettter, not with a flavish, but a Sonne-like feare; And Mofes faid unto the people, Feare not ; for God is come to prove you, that his Feare may bee before your faces, and that yee sinne not; Exed.20,20. The Prison is entended to flut men up, and hold the enclosed, but by accident, it makes men feeke out for Baile, and to find Sureties.

The wfe of the Law.

But before Faith came The word, Faith, is used in many fenfes, fometimes for the habit of Faith, sometimes for TANZOPOPIA, that full perswasion which is from Faith; sometimes for the Doctrine of Faith, fometimes for the knowledge of the Faith, fometimes for the profession of Faith. fametimes for the Truth. and sometimes for the gift of working miracles; but the word, insir, To come, a. grees with none of thefe; but most properly referres. to Christ; but before Christ came. The Phrases, is in and unto Christ, are of the same value and signification. Christ is our Faith, and in such a sense, her is elsewhere call'dour Hope. Wee must know this, that wee may know.

LuBinian. in Gal

r. That the old Fathers were not without faith, though Christ were not yet come in the sless, hee was the same then, and might come unto their apprehensions.

2. How Faith is imputed to us for Righteoulnes; Metonymically so understood, Christ is imputed.

Wee mere kept under the Eam, wind rount sprengings, some understand it of the Lawes Restraint from sinne; Some a Lèx velu ti muro quodam continent illes, et re-Bevivendi qualineces. Statem i ponens illos venture fidei refervabat, quod eral pracipunmindaorumo bineficium. chys.

Logem Ewangelicam
intelligit, qua Christi liberationia mysteria credenda
proponit.
Clem.
Alexan, Strome
lib. I.

for eye stay

2011. 12 11.2

ASSESSED IN

Some of the Lawes accidentary use to send to Christ: Others, that as a thing deposited, so were we treasured. And some, That as children in their pupill-age are defended from dangers, so we by the Lawes care. Thefe are firained. The word used in the Text, openadou, is more than quaitleden, To keepe or have custody; It signifies to be kept up as in a prison, or a place of firength and fafety; to be circled with a compassing strength. The Law was a wall unto the lemes to hinder their paifage, and exorbitances: So the fense of Chryfostome is true: It was also as a Frontier to separate the leves from from other people, thus were they nigh unto God, Dest.4.7. and differenced from their neighbors, When God frewed his Word anto 14cob his Statutes and his ludgments unto Ifrael : Pfal. 147. 19. But what the Apostle meanes, is more clearely expressed by another of the Apostles words, our was us puires, Wee were thur up as it were close prisoners. The prison is a place, in which captives are held, & without escape , they are rounded about with firong wals, and have no way to get forth. Such are those terrors of cofcience, which arise when the Law hath done its worke, they ftraiten the foule, and keepe it closely closely settered, that it sees no way to escape wrath; and then it speakes despairingly, Whither shall I goe from thy Spirit? Or whither shall I style from thy presence? Pfal. 139.7. I am lockt up, and know not whither to turne; Thus the Law shuts us up; But,

Shat up unto the faith, which should after be revealed, in misto pionous: There is the time of our imprisonment, and our comfort: we are fraightned, but not to be kept in the dungeon. Hee is the right Divine, I meane, the true practicke, that can joyne these two together in time of his temptation: The Lord taketh pleasure in them that seare him, mercy, Pfal.147.11: Wee must teare before God, as prisoners bound, and yet hope that he will be mercifull, because hee is a gracious God: and then hee taketh pleasure in us.

This is the true Art of Divinity, and wicked men have not this skill, but they divide inflead of joyning; they either divide frame from hope, and grow parform hope, and grow despense: So Caine when hee was in feare, lost his hope, and being straightned, made his fetters more close and hard upon himselfe. Sometimes hee was too peremptory, and no feare, when he made no matter of murther and the hiding of murther, but answers boldly, to the demand of God, for his bro. thers bloud, Am I my brothers keeper, Gen. 4.9. At another time, when he grows sensible, hee is altogether dejected and without hart, he answers despairingly to Godscensute, My finne is greater then can be forgiven, my punishment is greater then I can beare, Gen 4. 13. untaught man, that could not better diffinguish of time, and collect to his owne advantages; we must study this knowledge; The Law can be our Iaylor but till Christ come into the conscience.

Wherefore the Law was our Schoole-master to bring us unto Chriff, madayayds in xsist : The Schoole-maffer is appointed to infirmet, and to keepe youth as it were in prison, til that looferage becamed and guided But they continue not under the rod, but are fitted for a higher Master, or higher employment. Mofes. was but an under-mafter, and therefore his methods of teaching are corrected by a greater. Mofes deferibeth the righteousnesse which is by the Law, That the man which doth those things, shall live by them : but the righteousneswhich is of faith, speaketh on this wife; If thou halt confesse with thy mouth the Lord le-fus, and fhalt beleeve in thine beart, that God bathraifed bim from the dead, then fhalt be faved, Rom 10.5.6.9. The lemes were in the Lowerschoole, and all the parts of the Law fent them unto Christ. r. The precepts requiring a righteoufnesse, thewed their unrighteoufnelle, and fent them elfewhere to leeke it, 2, The Promifes were on fuch a condition, the condition of thing, as was nothern into positive, and put diem upom their fauther feareth. 3. The Threatnings fet them directly under the curse, which could be scaped onely by Christ. 4. The ceremonies of Sacrifices and washings, and whatever ever of the same kind, lead them typically to theirend. All Lawes fent them, onely with this difference: I. The morall, by an accidentary direction: 2. The Ceremoniall, by direct fignification, and duration: 3. The Iudiciall, by duration, and distinction. How the Law leads us, hath bin aptly, yet diverfly expreffed by expositors; as a feverer Mafter over a wanton youth; So Saint ' Hierome. Not that the Law is against Christ; the Schoolmaster is not adverse to the Master, but helpes; so Saint b Chrysoftome And that to fit us unto anhigher being, another form, as the Scholler fitted by the I adagogue, populalafci degogi ftpolicelt, ut cufodires . cos, et future fidei propermet. Hier DaL 1. com Fela. · Franco-EL HOR ach verfatur praccytori, led ad wvas arcens acole cen tem ab em mivitioreddensillum igeneum. Cbryf ..

clem Ale. 1.1.pad.c.6. Padagogus parvulis affignatur, us lastiviens reframetur. alas, storo. na in vitia cords wereantura dum termefen. dus eruditar infantia et ad majores Philofophia, acre, gende reipublica difciplinas, metu pana coercitaprepayatur. Gre. Naz. Otal 42. · Tert-Lde monagamia 1 Iran. 4 4. C. S. & Rol in Gal gogue, for Philosophicall fearches, or State-governmentifosClement Alexandriuns. A Scholler, though in-Aruded by him, yet expects not his inheritance from his Pædagogue, but when the time is fit, hee leaves him for what hee was entended for ; when wee give our names to Christ, Tuter a nobis, Curatorg; discedunt, then in that kind our Master leaves us; fo both d Nazianzes, and " Terrallian , and f Iraneus. We are young ones while the Law doth ferule us; fo s Rolloc. The expressions are all good, if weighed with their due graines. The Law is the Schoolmaster or Pædagogue; the Goffellis the MaMaster, or higher instructer: Here is the manner of our salvation, there are two Formes, and two Masters: The Vnder-forme, or Classes, under the Law, in which we are Captives, Children, Pupils: And the higher Forme, or Classes, under the Gospell, in which wee are free, at fuller age, and from under Guardians. Which Divinity discovers and condemnes two sorts of Schollers.

in either Schoole or Form; the thundrings of the Law no whit afright them, nor the sweet voyce of the Go-spell please them, but under both remaine unbetrered.

2. Such

Status,
1. Captivorum.
2. Puerorum.
3. Pupillorum.
Rol, ibid.

with a false method, in the higher forme first, who being never humbled, yet take hold of mercy, with which they have nothing to doe, and unto which they can lay no challenge; as being not wounded, and therefore not fitted for a plaister. It followes;

That we might be Instified by Faith] The Law brings us unto Christ: But what? as to another Law? No; but that we might be Instified by Faith; and Faith leads us to him, as a Instifier, not as a Law-giver; though in a second relation hee be our Law-giver, and wee owe him our obedience.

Thus

Thus are the Objections cleared, now proceed wee to the second thing propounded according to the Apostles method in this third general part, namely,

2. The more plainedifcussing of the Question, concerning the Law, How abrogated? How usefull? This is laid downe in the 25. verse.

The Text.

VIR $.25. But after that Faith is come, we are no longer under a Schoole-Mafter.

The pædagogicke use ceases, and the Law layes downe the Ferule. When Cirift raignes in the conscience by his Spirit, then the Law lives no more in the conscience to our Burchen, He bath quick. ned you together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses, blotting out the Handwriting of Ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and tooke it out of the way nailing it to his Crosse, andhaving Spoyled Principa. lities and Powers, hee made a Thew of them openly , triumph. ing over them in it, Col. 2. 13,14,15. And now, as that monoured holy Luther applyesit, If the Law begin to vexeus, let's not bearken untoit. When a man is come to the age of man, though the Pædagogue shake his Rod

k

w

C

Bened lust Com in Gal.3.

Rod over him, at which he was wont to quake, when the Pædagogue had power to use that masterly Scepter, yet now he feares it not. Tis true; while fin remaines (as it doth remaine, fo long as wee remain men) the Law comes often, to our humiliation; but for feare of danger, Christ must likewise come often spiritually into the conscience, that while wee fee firme, wee bee not overwhelmed. So the Law is full for our mortification, according to our more or leffe of Paith. There is leaven hid in our Dough, but we are not al leavened; whe we fee our telvs in our Christ, we see nothing but Da · lea-leaven; but when our selves as our selves, wee finde much unleavened, and the Law comes againe and a gaine. But I'll not more enlarge my selfe in a panphrase, but fal morestrongly to the Question, that great Question, How same the law is abrogated.

9

1

Of the Abrogation

Law Dom

The worke is difficult, for the Rule seemes to specific Scriptures appearing to oppose Scripture.

1. Some Scriptuzes scent to deliver us this position

Tha

C

C

C

ŀ

g.

21

77 ult

s to

C&

res.

CI

On.

ha

That the Law is altogether abrogated. You shall see it if you confult these Quotations: ler.31.31,32,6c. Pfal. 110. a new Priest is promised, and the Rule is, The Priest-hood being changed, there's a change of the Law, Heb.7. As, new Kings, new lawes : Hebr.7. 18. So, Rom. 3.5.7. Rom. 6. 15. Rom.7.1,2,3. where he speaks of the morall, as appeares, verf.7. 2 Cor. 3.9. 11.Gal 3.19.24. Gal. 4.5. I Tim. 1.9. Rom 8,2. Cal.5. 18. In my Preachings I repeated the words of thefe feverall Texts, and not without inlargements, but in a written Copy, it sufficeth to direct the Reader.

Translate Sacerdot o, Translatio o
Legis.

L3 2 Some

2. Some Scriptures feem to oppose this position to that other; That the whole Law is not abrogated. Mat. 5. 17. Rom. 3.31.

To Reconcile these, and to find out the Truth, wee must conclude, that both are true, though in divers respects; which wee shall discerne by observing these three particulars:

was given, and to whom not.

2. The Causes, why the Law should be abrogate.

3. What things are fignified under the word,

ven by Moses to the lewes,

1L

it pertained not to the Gentiles: and thus it cannot rightly be faid to be abrogated unto them, for none can be freed from the Law, but they that were under the Law, Gal. 4.5. The Gentiles were no more under Mofes his Law, as being the Law of Moses, than the Romans under the lawes of Lycurgus or Solon, the law-givers of Lacedemon and Athens. The Gentiles finned not again & Mofes his law, but against the law of Nature; and therefore are they said to have sinned without Law, Rom. 2.12. Yet for substance, this Law is the same with that of Mofes, the Decalogue; for when the Gentiles which have not L4 the

the Law, due by nature the things contained in the law; These baving not the law are a law unto then felves, Rom. 2.14. Concerning the faelites, some of them beleeved, some of them persisted in unbeliefe : of the former of these, there is not a. ny Question but they were freed; Christ was given, to redeeme them that were under the Law, that they might receive the Adoption of Jonnes, Gal.4.5. And of thefe, we may understand the Scripturisof the first position. The latter fort, though they were not freed by Christ, because not in Christ; yet now they are nec Mofaici, nec Christiani, properly, neither Christians, ans, nor Molaickes, because Christ, how soever, is the end of the Law; therefore they are without ceremony and without law. as being but usurpers upon that which they fill hold and use. To Beleevers it was not given, as from Me-(es, and therefore none of them are obnoxious to it, as his: for though they embrace the fame commands that Moses gave, yet they ere not subjects to it, but as now theirs by Christ. A New Commandement I give unto you, That ye love one another, 10hn 13. 34. 'Tts a Commandment, for Christ is a Saviour and a Lord; 'Tis a New one, for wee have it from the hand of OUT 1. 5 our Christ.

2. The Causes why law should be abrogated. These were,

1. That the Gentiles might be called ; Now in Christ tesus, ye who sometimes were afarre off, are made nigh by the bloud of Christ; for hee is our peace, who hath madeboth one, and bath broken downe the middle wall of partition betiverse us, Epbefi 2: 13914 Whatfoever was Intergeri. nus paries, A middle walt of partition betweene lemes and Gentiles, is broken downe and abrogated. But the fibfiance of the Law did not hinder their confociation; for the fe dicky Natune the things contained in the Law, Rom, 2.14. The Curfe

To per oron.

Nor T opas.

pis, quali

roeaspoor

Curse was that among of ther things which divided, and equally divided them both from Christ, now that they might bee subjeded to, and meete in one Christ, the Curse must be abrogated.

2. A second cause was, because it was an intolerable burthen; as Peter tells them in the Councell, it was fuch a burthen as neither they, nor their Fathers were able to beare, Att. 15.10: Hee speakes of the whole law, all the kinds; and the Apostle applyes it, I testifie againe to every man that is circumcifed, that he is a debtor to doe the whole Law, Gal. 5. 3. That which makes the Law heavy, & provesit to be

be a burthen, is abrogated; and therefore Christ calls as to another burthen, an easie one; Take my Yoake uponyou, for my yoake is easie, and my burthen light, Mat. 11.29, 30. This is the love of God, that wee keepe his Commandements, and his Commandements are not grievaus, 1 loh. 5.3.

3. A third Cause was, because the Law was unprofitable; Thereis, verily, adifamulting of the Commandement going before, for the weakenesse and unprofitableness thereof; for the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did, by the which wear aw night unto God, Heb. 7. 18, 19. In the sirst Tabernacle, were offered gifts.

gifts and Sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience, Hebr. 9.9. Saint Paul more particularly of the motall, What the law could not doe, in that it was weake through the flesh, Rom. 8, 3. The law being unprofitable unto Iustification, therfore in the businesse of Iustification it is abrogated.

4. A fourth cause, was, because the law was pernicious; though not of its ownenature, yet through the field, The Minister of sinne, morking wrath; But where the Spiritis, there is liberty. And therefore the law, as a coacter, is absogated.

Ang. 3. Tom lib.de Spir. et Lit. 3. I have passed these two more briefly, yet enough of them, to the Question; the third will challenge a longer stay, to enquire, what things are signified under the word Law, and to apply what wee enquire for; the difference of the abrogation. It signifies;

The bleffed wans delight is in the Law of the Lord, and in that Law hee doth exercise himselfe, Psal. 1.2, The people understood it in this sense, when they answered, We have heard out of the Law, that Christ abideth for ever, so the Law is not absogate, not one Title of it failes.

2.The

fes; All things must be sulfitled which were written of me, in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, Fin the Psalms, Luk. 24.44. Neither thus is the Law abrogate, for the Doctrine and writings of Moses remaine.

3. The pædagogy of Moses in his foure last bookes, Hadrebeleeved Moses, yee would have beleeved me, 10h 5.46. So itis, not wholly, not simply abrogate. There are in it, Promises, Types, and Commands.

Types doe cease, because the things typissed are fulfilled, the things promised are received: The house is built, built, and now no more need of the Idea or exemplar.

which were all those things, whatsoever were delivered, in nomine Dei, in Gods name to the people; These are not simply abrogate, some are eternall; all are called Law. Of which,

. Ingenerall.

2. More specially.

1. In the generall, wee of Law ;

ordination of right reason to the common and singular good of all and singular subordinates, given by him who hath the care of the whole Community, and

and every fingular in it.

an Ordinance commanding what is to be done, and to be omitted, made by him that hath right to require obedience, binding the apt creature to obey, with an holy promise of reward, and a threatning of punishment. Both of these are either Divine, from God; or Humane, from Gods Law. Here we speake of Divine; which may be considered;

1. As impressed on mens mirdes by an innate speech.

2. As enuntiated by speech declarative.

5. As comprehended in writing. Here, of the last:
And

And this in generall.

2. More specially; the Law written, is called Moles Law, which is threefold, as is the variety of the object; would, iscarnal, more moi, MO. rall, Ceremoniall, Iudiciall. The two latter are as Accessories to the first, the Ceremonies being added tothe first, and the Judgements to the fecond Table. The Ceremoniall, as also the Iudiciall Law, hath two parts; one externall, the other internall, the body and the foule, or the Subffance & the accidents. or the shell and the kernel. The inward thing of the Ceremoniall, is Faith and Piety ; of the Iudiciall, is mutuall love and piety; thefe these are eternall. The outward thing of both, is only abrogate; yet not all equally. Some Ceremonies are so abrogated, that they cannot be revoked againe without denying Christ. Some, and some politicke Lawes may bee received. But wee shall best discerne by handling all severally.

is an ordinance containing precepts concerning externall worship given to the Ifraelitish Church, whe it was yet an infant. The use of it, was,

r. To keepe the people

under hope.

2. As a midwall to fear parate them from the Gentiles.

3. That of this, they might be kept from the Idolatry of their neighbours. This Law is abrogate by Christs comming, and by these degrees;

1. In truth, in regard of necessity of the observation.

2. In fact, by the Doctrine of the Apostles, and by the destruction, both of Hierafalem the City, and of the Temple, the more speciall place assigned for the worthip.

2. The Indicial Law is an Ordinance containing precepts concerning the form of government. Some of the precepts being of generall, some of particular Right.

Right. The use of it, was,

1. That there might bee to all a certain rule of publike equity: That in this sense, Hierusalem might bee as a City well built, compact together, Pfal. 122 3.

ward policy, they might be differenced from other Nations.

3. That the government of Christ might be typissed unto them. Concerning the Abrogation;

1. So farre as this Law is typicall, so farre it cea-

feth.

2. These Indgements, simply, are neither torbid-den, nor prescribed unto any people.

3. Such things as are of

com-

common & generall right, are still in force, and must be obeyed, for what is in substance morall, is perpetuall; weemay know the common, naturall, morall, perpetuals ludgements, by two rules:

1. If they directly fence and give the guard unto a morall command; such are those, Deut. 13.6. Exod. 21:

12. Exod. 22.18.

2. If they follow from the light of Nature, and common right; as that, Deut, 22,5. and others of like nature.

3: The Morall Law is scattered throughout the whole Bible, and summ'd up in the Decalogue. Tis an Ordinance commanding

ding those things, which simply, God accepts, and will have done, of all men, at all times, every where; and forbidding the contrary. This is that constant and immutable rule, which is the image of the Divine will, by which the creatures live; and the summe of which is the love of God, and the love of our neighbours. To enquire into the abrogation of this, we will see,

r. The Substance of it.

2. The Circumstances of it.

3. The Vies of it.

norall, is Love; which our Savior divides, Fo God, that is the first and great Commandement, and to the neighbour, that is the second like unto the first, Mat 22.37,38,39,40. The Apostle gives it in another method and division, Tit. 2.12. A godly, a righteom, and a sober life. Thus the law is not abrogated, for the Substance is eternall.

2. The Circumstances were many ;

1. Of the giver, Mofes;

A man, an Hebrew.

2. Of the Subject recipient, the lewes, a limited people.

3. Of the place, Sind, a bounded hil!, and within the lewes pale.

4. Of the time, fifty daies after their departure from Egypt, a period that had be-beginning, and the beginning long after man had his.

ven in Tables, and by the ministry of Angels.

6. Of the Curfe, which was annext, or hung as a Tablet to the Tables of flore.

These are abrogate, for wee have nothing to doe with Moses, nor is the substance of the Law lesse ours because wee are not sense: We looke not to Sinai the hill of Bondage, but to Sinai the hill of Bondage, but to Sinai the mountain of grace, and wee take the Law as an eternal will, written in our hearts by the Spiritof God, from which we do not expect life, nor feare rigour.

3. The uses of this Law, vary as a mans chate va-

I Before sinne entred, the use was for life and Iustification; that is now abrogate, for else Righteousnesse should be by the law, but that being weake through the sless, it is now of promise.

2 Vnder the state of sin; the use intended, was, 1. To argue of sinne: 2. To convince of weakenesse: 3. To compell to seeke grace, to have recourse to Christ. And in this is abrogate, in respect of curse and condemnation.

3 Vnder the State of grace, it hath an use convenient to it, to becaperpetuall Rule of life.

r A Glasse, wherein wee may better know Gods wil. The servant, or the sonne, that is willing, must learne yet how to actuate his willing disposition. Though we, as sonnes, are guided by the Spirit of God, and in our love unto God, are ready unto all our services, yet we need the word to be a light unto our feet, and a lanthorne to our paths, Pfal, 119.

Wee need exhortation too, and our fluggish flesh wants a sweete Monitour, that we may be forwarded in our flackings and wandrings: I am a stranger in the earth, hidenot thy Commandements from me, Ps. 119

19. M 2 3 There's

Nec bodie minus quem olim, doctria na legis
locum babet in Ecclessa.

3 There's another benefit; All Scripture is profitable for reproofe, and for corretion, 2 Tim. 3.16.

Wee cast not away that holy and good Law, but know our sinnes provoke our dulnesse, rule our carriage by it. I'll adde no more here, because I shall be occasioned to speake more unto the Question, in the use that I entend to make of what hath beene positively laid the use shall be for Instruction, for Conturation, for Exhortation.

This former Doctrin hath given a foundation to clear unto us that mystery, How the Promise of the Covenant, the Law, and the Gofpel, referre one to another; how they agree, how they differ.

Syell

The Law, the Promile, and the Gospell, may be considered as opposite, or subordinate.

As Opposites. The condition of the Law, as given unto Adam, excludes the necessity of making a promise, and proclaiming a Gospell. And the necessity of making a promise, and publishing the Gospell, declares that man obeied not the Law given, for Justification might not be, Simult exgratia et debito, at once both of grace and of debt; It implyes contradiction.

The Promise ought to goe

M 3 be-

before the Gospell, and to be fulfilled by it; It was not fit so great a good as the Gospell, should be had undefired, nor was such defire to be made frustrate. It was at that the Law should be given, that the necessity of the promise of grace might appeare, that being convicted, we might flye unto our Refuge, fo the whole Law ferved the Golpell; and the morall law ftill, now that the promile and the Gospell are both received, yet ferves as a Rule, and is full Subordinate.

But because there is weight in this Instruction, I will bee more particular in it; and discover,

1 The

1 The comparison of the Law and the Gospell.

I How the agree.

2 How they differ.

2. The comparison of the Promise and the Gospell.

I How they agree.

2 How they differ.

In the comparison of the Law and Gospell, wee must deale as Plutarch in his Greeke and Romane lives, to examine the proportions and disproportions, so wee shall best finde the just difference.

1 How they agree; and therein;

the Law was first given to Adam, and afterward again by Moses; So it agrees with the Gospell, in the generall consideration of the Author, the Matter, the End, and the Subject.

The Author of both, in a generall consideration, was God.

a generall confideration, was Commands and Promiles.

3 The End of both, in a generall confideration, the glory of Gods Attributes, his Wisedome, and his Goodnesse, and his Iustice.

4 The Subject of both, in generall confideration,

Man.

2. Specially, As the law was given to Adam, it agrees with the Gospell, in the then possibility of performance.

2 How

2 How they differ; and herein againe confider we the Law,

I As brought to Adam.

a As given by Mofes.

r As the law was brought to Adam, it much differs from the Gospell.

ration of the Author. God the Trinity gave the Law, without having respect to Christ: but God, gracious and mercifull, having respect unto his Christ, gave the Gospell. Now to apprehend God, as hee then entended himselfe to bee knowne, meerely as a Creator, and a Soveraign rule, were to make ourselves misserably uncomfortable.

2 In the Speciall confi-M5 deraderation of the matter: the first Covenant was of mans workes; the fecond of Gods grace: the Law, Doe this and live; the Gofpell, If thou beleevest thou Shalt be faved: and faith alfo, or beleeving, is not here required as a worke. Thefe two are very oppolite, and mutually destroy each other: If by grace, then it is no more of workes; otherwise grace is no more grace: but if is be of workes, then is it no more grace, otherwise workes is no more workes, Rom. 11.6.

deration of the manner of exhibition: the first Covernant stood on mans righteousnesses, Christs imputed

and

and made ours: the first mutable, because upon the mutability of mans will: the second sirme, upon the foundation of Gods immutable wil; tis an everlasting Covenant:

anneration: the reward or the added good, was there of debt, is here of grace: there no other reward was revealed, but what earthly paradife afforded; but here heaven is fet open.

of In the speciall consideration of the subject:

The Law, was to manianocent; the Gospell, to manasinner. 2 The Law was to Adam, and universally to all his posterity:

the Gospell onely to the seed, to the elect in Christ.

deration of the End; that was for the glory of Gods wisedome and justice; this for the glory of his mercy and iustice tempered: that Law was a Covenant of Iussice without assisting mercy; this Gospell is a Covenant of Iustice and mercy together. I see the Iustice of my God sulfilled by my Christ, and the mercy of my Father extended in and for Christ.

2 As the Law was given by Moses, it differs from the Gospell.

I In some maines;

In the distinct conside-

as angry, gave the Law; as reconciled, gave the Gospell: therefore the Lawgiving was accompanyed with signes of wrath; the Gospell, with the tokens of Gods good pleasure; as the Apostle fully puts the differences, in that discription of either, Hebr. 12, 18, 19,20,21,22.

In the mediatour; S. Iohn hath cleared this, For the Law came by Moses, but Grace and Truth came by Ie-sus Christ, 10h,1.17. A servant was the Mediatour of that, the Lord the Mediator of this, is a killing letter, the Gospel is a quickening Spirit;

3 In the bloud confirming each; that Testament was confirmed by the bloud ot beasts, this by the bloud bloud of the Sonne of God.

Law was poore and weak, unable to give life; but the Gospell is Gods strong Arme, the power of God unto salvation. 2. The law was a burthen, which they were not able to beare, the Gospell is a light Burthen, and an easie Yoake.

the Law is the ministry of death and condemnation;
the Gospell, the ministry of Spirit and life: Hagar generates unto bondage, and they that are of the Law, are captive; Sarah generates unto liberty, and her her formes are tree. The law is an hand-writing of Ordinances against us, the Gospell is an acquittance for us, the Sermon of the Crosse, upon which that Hand-writing is nayled, and made of no use. When the law shewes me a bill of my sinnes, sealed; I can shew the Gospell, ageneral discharge: See, your evidence is not valid, 'tis cancelled upon the Crosse.

2. In some circumstan-

r. Of the Subiect, wherin the Covenants were written; the Law upon tables of stone; the Gospell in the sieshy Tables of the heart: that former was an hard Covenant, without me;

me; this is made casie to mee, because written in mee.

Sion: Sinai, from whence was the Law, was a Mount that might not be touched, that burned with fire, a place of blackenesse, and darkenesse, and tempest; But Mount Sion, the City of the living God.

3. Of the Time. 1. Of promulgation: 2. Of duration: that till Christ; this unto eternity.

where the comparison of the Law and Gospel, in their agreemets and differences; now the coparison of the Covenant of Promise and the Gospel.

I They agree together in fub-

fubstance. o at or sac

I In the efficient cause, from the fole gracious mecy of God respecting us in Christ. Author inca act of

2 The matter of both the fame, the obedience of Faith unto life: 1, and 9 00

3 The end of both, the praise of Gods glorious grace.

4 The subject the same, both made to finners, not that worke, but that doe beleeve.

The effects are the fame, for both do generate unto liberty.

6 Laftly, they are both fealed by the same Spirit, both were confirmed by oath, and therefore neither of them to bee abolished, but but one to fucceed the other, the former to bee fulfilled by the latter.

2 They differ onely in some accidentals;

Promise respected Christ to come, the Gospel Christ now already exhibited.

of the Paith; the Faith of the Promise was more darke, the Faith of the Go-spell more cleare; for Christ appeared to them in types; now, as it were, face to face.

3 Of the Subject;

this to all people: the water of that promife ranne within the Channell of Ifrael; this is an Ocean, and compasseth the earth.

2.To-

2 To them, but not fo

I They were as in their Non-age, we Adulti, at our fuller time.

yer young; and such differ not from servants; they were under the Occonomy of Moses; but wee have an entrance on the inheritance.

3 In a word, They were under the Spirit of Bondage, we are free.

I have endevoured with as much clearenesse in the method as I could, yet briefly to deliver my selfe of this mystery, and to set together, in one view, the Promise, the Law, and the Gospell, in their true difference;

ference; the true knowledge of which, will helpe much unto the evennesse of our walking ; and the ignorance of which, either too much bladders, or too much despaires the soule. This enough of the first ufe.

2. We may make use of the former Doctrine for confutation.

r Against the Iewes, who would have the Ceremoniall and Indiciall lawes, in regard of the externals, still to be in force. We have concluded them abrogated, and shall but touch at what they doe obicct.

. That God made with them a Covenant for ever,

Exod

1, Againg Icwes.

Exod.12.24 an everlaiting Covenant, Gen. 17. 13. 1 answer, The word, ever, may be taken firially, or more largely : If ftrictly, then 'tis true, the Internall thing, the Substance, Of Circumcifion and the Passeover, is for ever: But if more largely, as theword is used in scripture, chiefly in that place, Exod. 21. 6 . The bored fervant fall ferve his mafter for ever; then it fignifies not eternity, but a long period, or duration of time; fo the externall thing of those lawes was to continue a long period of time.

2 They object for their judicial law, that it being the best and justest forme of policy and government, it ought to be retained. We answer to the due glory of the wisedome of God their law giver, by confessing it such as they doe plead; but such to them, not to us; for it was Gods wisedome, to fit them a just law suitable to their condition; and others now to ours.

Rians may use Greek laws, or Roman lawes; therefore the lawes of Moses. Wee answer, 'tis a part of our liberty, and we may; 'tis lawful for the State of England to entertaine a French, a Venetian law, so also a lenish, so farre as it is not Mosaicall; all lawes that be of common and naturall right we may use, though given by Moses; because that being the internall thing, is not Mosaicall.

and Antinomists, altogether contrary to the lewes; they would have all their lawes in force; these will have nothing but remove the Moral law quite, as being of no use. They say it is so wholly abrogate, that Christians have nothing to doe with it: they say, wee have a talse mixture of Christ and Moses, while we mingle together, consused by, Law and Gospell.

But for the removall of this scandall, wee appeale unto our Doctrine, and by

it,

a. Against Antinomists, and libertines. it, will answer unto their objections.

obied.1. That which cannot be performed, is needlessely and unprofitably taught.

Fallacia :

Answ. 'Tis a fallacy of the consequent, when they put that for a cause which is not: We teach not the law for a full performance, so to be legally righteous, but by it, in the a cidentary use, to bee brought nearer unto Christ. Till the conscience bee wounded, Christ will have nothing to do with the conscience.

Obiect. 2. Christ is not a Law-giver.

principall office of his Mediatorship, hee is not; yet

he

he gives lawes, A new Command I give unto you; and our Faith, when it lookes rightly upon Christ, beholds him both as a Savior and a Lord, as we expect salvation from him, so we must resolve to obey him.

obiect. 3. Go is Inflice requires fatisfaction to be made, and because hee is Inst, he requires satisfaction but once; wee must either obey, or submit to a suitable penalty; but wee have satisfied in Christ, by undergoing punishment, and therfore are not bound unto obedience.

Anjw. These are resolved mistakings: Doe they not know, that we require o bedience, not satisfactory,

N

but

but Declarative, to manifest our thankfulnesse? We could not, Christ hath satisfied; now all that wee can doe, is but nothing, yet henceforth wee must not live unto our selves, but to him that dyed for us, 2 Cor. 5.15.

obiett. 4 Christians are led and ruled by the Spirit of God, and therefore need not a Law.

Answ. The Law indeed would bee but dead, if it were not an instrumentall in the Spirits hand; hee makes use of the Law, and guides us by it. But of this more fully hereaster, against the Enthusiasts.

obiect. 5. The Apostle presents unto our memory

our

our owne knowledge, We know that the Law is not made for a righteous man, 1 Tim. 1.9.

t

0

C

ıt

d

d

it

1 ee ad

115

ale

y

11

Anfr. The Apostle to his inttructed Timethy , condemnes fuch as were defirous to be teachers of the Law, understanding not what they faid, but would condemne the conscience against the Gospel; and he clearely meanes, the Law is not for the Coaction of a righteous man. But what is the Coadion of the law! The Papifts fay, that righteous men are not coacted, because they obey willingly, chearefully, from the infind of charity; but it coacts the unrighteous, because they spurne at the law, law, and must bee constrained to obey. Burthis is not enough; for a flave is still a flave, though hee worke, nay, though he be willing to worke. Therefore wee adde, and explaine it thus, The law doth not coact the Righteous, because they are free from the necessity of fulfilling the law for life and falvation. But it coads the unrighteous, becauf being under the law, they are bound to an exact performance, upon pain of damnation: So we are free, be cause they are servants, and we fonnes; yet not free from the direction of the law, for fo a fonce is not frec. Directionis a bare prescription of a Rule; Coaction action is a compulsion upon a penalty. A Sonne, A King, is under Direction of Law, and yet who freer.

ſ

t

Obiect. 6. The Law is a killing letter, The ministration of death, 2 Cor. 3.6,7.

Infw. Tis fo rothem that are unregenerate, and while itremaines in its coacting and condemning force. The ground of this objection, is their wrong understanding of Scripture; they raise it thus; Say they, When the Apostle preacht Christ, some opposed it, and argued against his Preaching, faying, The Law was given, and wee must doe that, we must bee faved as our Fathers were, they were holy, and lived

1.

e.

10

CC

be

gt

re

0.

ao

Bern in Cant Sermi

in the Law, and pleased God, and fo must we. Hereupon, say the Antinomists, the Apostle began to oppole the Law, and to teach them, that all the Fathers, who lived in the time of the Law, were under the Law, carnall; and the fons of Agar, in bondage. And that all that use the law, are carnall, and in bondage likewife. But how dangeroufly doe they understand Scripture? They shalbeare their owne burthen, for our Saviour hath spoken it, Whosoever shall breake one of thefe least commandements, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdome o heaven, Mat. 5. 19. The faith of the Fathers, was was the same with ours, and though they lived in the Law, yet not under the Law; but had the same Christ with us: Therefore our Saviour gave testimony to that ancient Abraham, He saw the day of Christ, and reioxced.

obicat. 7. They say wee doe much injury, to joyne together what God hath feparated.

Anf. Nay, we confound them not, but say, the Gospell is more giorious than the Law, and the mysteries in it, are farre clearer. 'Tis Chrysostoms expression, that the Doctrines differ, as a picture rudely drawn with a Cole, or lined forth more exactly with a pencill.

NA Thefe

Enfeb ecclbist.l.t. 6.1
Idem de vita Const l.2
Philastr.
cont Har.
cap.61.
Ang in Io.
Tra.45
Prosper A. quit Obi.8
Nicepb Catist.eccebist.

4.5.

These are their weapons and their Arengths, but ye fee how invalid: But where they have not firength, they have enough of humour; for, (as the Apostle gravely unto Titus) There are many unruly and vaine Talkers and Deceivers, whale mouthes must be slopped, who Subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filiby Lucres fake, Tit I. 10,11. The holy Spirit of Calvin, was zcalous against this iniury done unto the Law, when he dared peremptorily, to call that opinion profane; Away with that profane opinion out of our mindes. But we will follow them no longer in their triflings, but proceede to a new

Faceffat, tonge ex animis nofiris profana iffac opinio.
Caiv Inft.
L2 c. 7 fect.

new encounter, against other confederates of theirs, who build much upon the same grounds.

Against the Enthaliefts, and vision-boasters, who negled the Law, and presume altogether upon the Spirits revelation. In Saxony, about the yeare of Christ, 1521. therewere divers together with Nicholas Storke, who preached, that they had visions and revelations, that there should be a new world, all wicked Princes thould be kild, and that rightcousesse should reigne. Thomas Muncer followed this Sect, and Preached against the Ministers and Magistrates; they did breg of the Spirit, which they 3. Against Enchusiathey faid, was efficacious in them: Some of them were extalled, and used strange gestures in their bodies; Someaffirmed they had visions which revealed unto them, that Infants must not bee baptized; Some, that in their visions they faw Zuinglius, and fuch as he, in hell; Some, that it was revealed unto them, when the day of Judgement should come. Fancies, which men are led unto, by the Father of lies. Mahomet, that great impo-for, had fuch wayes of delusion; So many of those Popili Fathers of Brotherhoods, when they would institute their Orders, have pretended vision. Hence thele thefe menhad their name, Spirituals, or Enthusiasts, whom Luther, that hammer of Anabaptisticall Heretickes, opposed in their greateft heat. Tistrue, that in the prophecy of 10d, there is mention dreames; I will powre out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sommes, and your daughters shall prophecie, your old men [hall dreame dreames. your young men Shall fee vilions, leel 2.28. But let mee adde to that of loel, out of another Prophet; I bave beard what the Prophets Said, that doe prophecy lyes in my name Saying, I have dreamed; I have dreamed; they are Prophets of the deceit of their owne heart, which thinke to name by their dreames: Hee that hath my Word, let him speake my Word faithfully: Behold, I am against the Prophets, saith the Lord, that use their tongues, and say, Hee saith: Behold, I am against them that prophecy false dreames, Ier. 23, 25, 26, 28, 31, 32.

Talmud in Sanbedr.C.1 The Hebrew Doctors have a Proverbe, and are wont to fay, That after the latter Prophets were dead, the Holy Ghost went up from Israel: They meane, after Zachary, and Malachy, and those other Prophets, none had any more that extraordinary gift: In this sense, we may understand, that is the Alls, when Paul asked the the Disciples at Epbesus, Whether they had received the Holy Ghoft, they answered, We have not so much as heard whether there bee any Holy Ghoft , Att. 19. 2. They doubted not of the diffination of persons, having beene instructed in that mysterie; but had not bin acquainted with those extraordinary abilities of prophecying and visions. Wee reied such Impostures, and therefore cannot but be agrieved at that Popish Scandall, who call it, The Instintt of the Lusherans. That holy Luthen opposed these fooleries, and wee may oppose the life of Luther, against the foule mouth of that railing Vign-But crius.

Paulus Fagius, in exed, 28,

lob. Figu. natures Christ. Phil lof. c. 14. 5.2. But let us deale with them a little more particularly in their Tenents.

They faid, that our Preachers were not fent of God; that they Preached not the true Word; that the Scriptures and externall Word, is not the true Word of God; but wee must onely have the Testimony of the true Word, which is Christ; which is taught, not by Scriptures and Sermons, but inwardly. And therefore if we alleage Scripture unto them, they answer,

What have I to do with the dead letter, when I have the living Word of God in the living Spirit.

Thus they purposely re-

iect

ied Scriptures, that they may more freely bring in their fancies." But is not that which is in the Prophers mouth, the fame that is from the Spirit? Therefore the Prophets, in all their Preachings, declared. their Authority, Thus faith the Lord. And though the Inke and Paper be not the Word yet thus is the word conveyed unto us ; leremiah had the Word from God, Baruch from Ieremian, the lake and Paper from Barneb, and we from that, have Gods will and mellage to that people. Then Barneh answered, Hee pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I prote them with Inke in the Booke, Ier. 36. 18. It was the Theffalonians prayle, that they entertained the Ministry, and saw God in the Ministry: Fox this eaufe also thanke wee God without ceasing, because when ye recei. ved the word of God, which ge beard of us, you received it not as the word of men, but a it is in truth, the word of God, I Thef. 2.13. And when they oppose the Spirit unto the Word, they make the Inditer contradict his owne writings. But the word of the Lord endureth for ever, and this is the Word which by the Gofpell is preached unti you, 1 Pet. 1.15.

Againe, they fay, That Preaching must now cease, for, We are all taught of God, need not the Sacraments, because we have the Spirit and the Thing signified by them.

Ier.

They still abuse Scripture, though in the generall, they will reied Scripture; and that which they most strongly urge; Te need not that any man teach you, but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and no lie, 1 10h. 2.27. That is not for them; the Apostle there entends but to plead for the Apostolike Doctrine; that they needed no other Doctrine but what God had delivered unto them: He gives himselfe explained in the former verse, that hee would arme Iran ! 4.

arme them against seducement, Thefe things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you. The 4postolike Church it felfe, had the Spirit; the Holy Ghost came downe upon them, yet they had Preaching likewife, witnesse their Sermons frequently recorded in the Acts. But how dare they fo much dishonour the wisedome of Christ, seeing he pleased to Institute them, to call the Sacraments needelesse? Would that onely wife God institute things to no purpole? But though wee have the Spirit already, yet wee may use the Sacraments. Christ had the Spirit, and yet hee was baptized, tized Mat. 3.15. Heethen received the Spirit in the form of a Dove, for our fakes, nor his owne. Cornelius had the Spirit before he was baptized. Wee must examine whether we be in the Faith, and fo wee muß eate. And what though no other thing bee in the Seale, than in the Promise; yet though I trust a man well, I have more ground for my trust, when I have his Bond; fo the Sacraments are intended for the strengthening of our Faith.

I'le not longer pursue these; they have beene strange Pitches, to which many of these Enthusiasts have beene listed; They called David Georg their singuNon ratio ne (ni, sed spectantin.
ne with mea morn
disciplina,
Gios Ord.

Io. Sleid.
Wift, lib 10.
Lamb. Hortenfic lib.
Tumult. Anab. Henr.
Dorpius, 8dit. 1536.

fingular prophet, and himfelse was blasphemously bold to call himselse, The Christ, the Messiah. Tisenough to name such horeible blasphemies; now let others enter to their part and acting.

4. Against Anti-vetera-testamentaries,

4. Against such as receive not the Testimony of the old Testament. They say, the face of Mojes is vailed, we neither can, nor may see him. They urgo that of the Apostle to the Hebrewes, In that be faith, A new Covenant, hee bath made the first old, Heb. 8.13.

But while they destroy the old, they destroy the new together with the old; That very quotation of their owne is urged by the Apostle from the old Testament, Christ made ule of it when hee Preached upon the Booke of the Prophet Efaiah, Luk. 4.17. And after his refurrection, beginning at Mofes and all the Prophets, hee expounded unto them the Scriptures, Luk 34.27. And Peters Sermon, All. 2. hath much from that Tellament. But if they fay, This was for the lewes fake, wee have to oppose that example of Philip to the Eunuch, a Gentile, an Esbiopian, at that time a Christian; to him Philip expounded Eferab. And how often are such Scriptures, urged by Paul the Apostle of the Gentiles? Pur Longe ali ter nos Evangel um promulga ти, днат Mofes Utterem le . gem. Ille p lam, as aperte loqui non aufus eft, jed velo faciem obduxit, nos vero nibil patimur effe o. pértum aus OC WHUM. Chry, in ioc. Ters, lib de Refur a.gs Idem.lib. 5. Ac verf.

the

Mar.ca I

But Moses is vailed? What will they inferre? Most of the Antients understood it onely of his darke way of delivery; He gave things obscurely, by the Golpell they are more. Theophilatt, indeed, speakes a little to what they feeme to meane: The rude ifraelises could not fee that the Law should have an end, and should bee abrogated. But hee speakes foundly enough inthat, and not to their purpose. But the Apostle bath bett interpreted the myflery ; We nfe great plainnesse of speech, and not as Mofes, which put a Ifraelite rudes non potnerunt videre, quod finem babe retlex, quodo; abroganda foret The ophis. Cyril. in 10lib. 3.6ap 34. Orig. bom. 12. in exod.

veile

N

n

fe te

I

0

verle over his face, that the children of If ael could not stedfastly looke to the end of those things but their mindes were blinded, for unto this day remaineth the same veile untaken away, in the reading of the old Testament , which veile is done away in Christ; But even unto this day when Moses is read, the veile is upon their beart, 2 Cor. 3. 12, 13 14,15. Tis Anselms note, There is a double veyle, one of Obscurity in those Typicall things, another of want of faith in our hearts; neither of these will be plea for them to deny acquaintance with old Scriptures. I shall deale but with one other adversary, but a dangerous.

5.A-

y. Against Pure Sinleffe Andbaptists.

baptists, such as were the Novatians and Catharists of old. They say, They are pure without sinne; the glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing, Eph. 5.27. Yea, that they cannot sinne, is of the Divell; Whosever is borne of God, doth not commit sinne, and he cannot sinne, because he is born of God, 1 loh 3.8,9.

But we may answer Saint lobuby Saint lohn, If wer fay we have no sinne, wee deceive our selves, and the truth is not in us, I loh. 18, Wee must therefore Recencile him to an answer. Interpreters are not agreed. I Ambrose, as Augustin relates his opicil.

Aug. 14 ad Bonif. 5.7.

Aug de nat.

opinion, understands it of the state of future glory. But be speakes of this life. 2. Others, as the same Asgustine relates, not de fatte. that they doe not finne; but deiure, that they ought not. But thus they are not differenced from unregenerate, for they allo ought not to finne. 3. Bernard yet more Araines it, to that covering love in Gods prædestination. But 'tis not meant of imputation, for that phrase, he cannot fin, it cannot bee meant, God cannot impute finne. 4. Augustine, in one place, seemes tounderstand it of the different condition of man; that the Regenerate in this life, are partly the fonnes

BleBles ad-Veris quels пинапа peccaffe, quoriam et E qua delsq siffet,m tempore vid miny , non apparent in aterniate. quia charitas patris ipforum operet multitudinem peccatorii. Bern Serm 23. in Cans: Bern ferm. I. Sepinaz. Renates in

has TIME

partim effe filios Des ratione generationis et inchos-LE TERFUL tionis pareim filios buius feculi,refpediu veluftatie in carns. velbuc relique, quod ergo dieumtur non peccare id de illis dici quaterns funt Dei fifii qued verd inben tur fateri, of God, in regard of generation and inchoate renovarion, partly the children of this world, in regard of the oldnesse of the fiesh stil remaining in them: That therfore they are faid not to sinne, is spoken of them as they are the sonnes of God, that they are commanded to confesse that they still have sinne in them, is spoken of them as they are the children of this world. All which is true, ashe intended it against the Pelagians, but not to the minde of this place. 5. But what the same Father delivers in ancetum, id Other place, is consented with diei, quatenne funt fili buim seculi. Aug. fib. 2. De pess mer, et Remif. cap 8. Aug. Tract.5. in le Hier. 1b. 1. adven, Pelag Idem, lib aduen. touin. Gernard. y fp. 1, cont. Fanat. The Som, 53.59. nd 70.

to by others, understanding it of Reigning finnes, wasting the conscience; This is a sinne unto death: whereupon Saint John diflinguisheth and clears the objection made from his ownewriting, cap. 3. Allim. righteonfreffe is finne, and there is a sinne notunto death. Wee know that who foever is borne of God, fruneth not, but. he that is begotten of Good, keepeth him felfe and that wicked one toucheth him not, 1 lob.5. 17,18. Howfoever wee must admit of sinne, Hee that is "cleane, yet hath need that his feee be washed, 10h. 30. 10. None of the Saints ever bragd that they were finneleffe. How fhall ! chuse ont my words to reason with 0 2 tile puto

non contaminari extrema anima, etiam in viris qui perfedi putantur.
Orig Aug.
ad Seleuc.
e. pif. 108.

with God, whom, though I were righteons, yet would ! not answer, but I would make Supplication to my ludge, faith that holy Patient, lob 9.14.15, And he who had the Testimony of a man to Gods heart, yet bends; If thou Lexd, shouldst marke iniquity; O Lord, who shal stand? Pfal. 130. 3. Enter not into indement, with thy fervant. for in thy fight shalno man living be instified. Pf. 143.2. Who can (ay, I have made my beartclean, lam pure from my Game ? Prev. 20, 9. And all thele, leb, David, Salomen, though they lived in the time of the Law, had one and the same Christ with us. And the Iustified Paul, I know nothing by my felfe yet Am am Inot herby Instified, 1 Cor. 4.4. 'Tis that which the holy Spirits of the Ancients have inveighed against. They lay, The Regeneratesannot finne, the flesh onely can. But what? Is it not their fieth? Where are themselves when the flesh finnes? Or if they bee Regenerate, are they not alfomen de Tis true, that the Flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the Flesh, these are contrary the one to the other, Galis. 17. Bur the word Fleft, is here taken not phufically for the musculous substance of the flesh, but theologically for the vitiousnesse of nature. And supposing it true in their literall fense, yet the 0 3 ve-very flesh, which is called the veffel, must be kept holy; This is the withof God, even your fanctification, that ye should abstaine from fornication. That every one of you Should know how to passe fe his veffell in Santification and Honour for God hash not called us unto uncleanneffe, but unto holineffe, 1 Thefi4.3 4. 7. I endure not to mention those fifthy those filthy doctrines of David Georg, concerning Spirituall marriage, and the lawfulnesse of having many Spiritualt wives, Adangendam prolem. Doctrines contrary to an expresse Apostolike Rule, I Cor. 7.2. And more Beftiall and impure, than the uncleane herefies of the V4Valentinians and Gnostickes.

Bafil, lib.de confit. Me. nafl.c 1. Greg. Mor. l.5.e 7,8. 23 Eaffian soll. 22,6.7.

They have another conceit suitable to the former, That in their prayers they will not make confession of their finnes, nor petition for pardon. And therefore would have the petition of Remttte debita, Forgive our Trespasses, wiped out of the Lords praiers. Ah, bold presumers! Did Christ teach it, and shall they despise it? Are they so rich with Landicea, that they standin need of no pardon? Wee may fay of them, as Tully against his Authory, O te miserum ! Wretched Anthony! And by fo much more wretched, because thou knowest not that thou art fo. The estate of such is more dangerous, than of the most prophane, those are diseased with a feaver, these with a Lethargy. The violence of the feaver may make the man fenfible, that he needs physicke; an open courle of profanenesse often strikes a man at his private and separated times. But the Lethargy is a dull difeafe, and the man, nor fees, nor cares. They cannot have heaven, unlesse they have pardon. 'Twas an ancient error, and anciently opposed.

04

more

All these severallerrors flow from the opposition of the Law, or the unjust maintenance; The lewes doe unjustly maintaine: The Antinomists, the Enthu

frafts,

Conc. Afr.
Conc Miler
Aug de Spir et lit.
cap. 2.
Bafil Hom.
de pamit.
Amb. in
1. us 1.
Idem, lib.
de fuga Saente.
Gennad de
eccl. Dogm.
cap.31.

mentaries, the sinnelesse Anabaptists, doe as unjustly oppose it. We will not longer pursue them, but proceed in the last place, by way of conclusion of the whole Tractate, to another use.

tation. Let us not reject the Law, but make of it its owne proper use. God will not have it contemned, there is morality in that command, Deutr. 32. 46; 47. Set your hearts to all the words which I command you this day, for it is not a vaine thing for you. And the man is described to bee beessed, who meditates in the Law of God, and doth exercise himselfe therein day and night, Pfal. 1. 2. Let not Moses take the place of Christ, but yet make a right use of Mofes: when workes come in their owne place, wee can neverperforme enough of them: if we use them as our life, this were indeede to trample the blood of Christ under our feet, and to fet Mofes in the chaire; but let the feruant follow his Maker; let Mofes follow Christ, let the Law follow Grace, let Workes follow Faith, that ell may act their proper and delig. ned parts. Let me call for workes, that God may be Honoured, chat your owne consciences may be comforted, that wandrers may be be called, that weake ones may be incouraged. Tis an end of our being, an end of our redemption; wee are intended for action, wee are created to good works, wee are redeemed that wee might serve; All those, all these considerations doe call for working. Let mee instance but the worke of Redemption, because most agreeing to the argument in hand; Beine delivered from the hand of our enemies, we must serve him in holinese and i shteousnesse all the dayes of our lives, Luk. 1.74,75. Let us contemplate the state of our misery, the estate of our deliverance. A poore Gally-flave that is wearied out by his continuall nuall tugging at the Oare, whose Armes doe grow Brawny with excessive labour, and nothing more or. dinary to him, than flrokes and hard ulage, fothat he spinnes a poore and wearisome life, worse than death it felfe ; if a ransome bee freely paid for him, by one who commiferats his case, would he not gladly spend himselfe in the service of his Raufomer? 'Tis our case, wee are the men. In what a stavish thraldome were wee by nature, being chained, and fervants to divers lufts and pleasures? Christ was pleased to deliver us, and to pay his bloud, a ransome : Oh ler us live unto him that dyed

W

2-

۲.

3

C

Worke, and bee Thankefull, I may change the word of the Martyr, Pray, Pray, Pray, into another, seasonable for these times, Worke, Worke, Worke. Beloved ! They are dull times that wee are fallen upon, let us not bee dully negligent with the times I may befpeake you, as our Saviour in that parable to the Loyterers, Cur statis oriof ? Why fland yeall the day idle? Why doe yee dishonour your faith? Open the mouthes of the adverle part; Bring a staine upon the professed Religion: Worke, for Gods fake, for the Faiths fake, for Religion fake, for your owne fake, worke. We spend a way away our times idlely, one talkes away his time, another fports away his time, another trades away his time, almost all doe lavish itaway. Why stand yee, all your youth, al your age, all your life time idle? Hath no man hired you? Was not the bloud of Christ laid down for you? Let us at length bee ashamed of our barrennesse and unfruitfulnesse in good works. Let us be acquainted with our Masters will, and to that end make use of the Law, That the Righteoufneffe of the Law may be fulfilled in us , who walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit, Rom 8.4. The Law is a royall Law, and must be obferved; ferved; If ye fulfil the royall Law, viper Banneris, according to the Scripture, yee doe well, Tam. 2.8. Some understand it of the Gospell only, but unfitly. The Royall Law, is as the Royall way, the Kings high-way, a plaine Rode, without turnings or by-paths. A byway, is a compassing way, the Law, the will of God is onely streight. The passage by the Law, is like the paffage intended by I frael thorow Edons, they would goe by the Kings High-way, and neither turne to the right hand nor to the left, Num. 20 17. Let us ufe that way cofeionably, let usufe it, and receive not the Grace of Godinouin, 2Cor. 6.1. That Aquinas. Gerrhan. Paber.

A'µqodò's, ex aµqi, ex odò's, Regia lex
fient via Regia fine
divertisulis.

we may receive that grace into our hearts, as well as into our eares. And by this we may make a tryall also of our workes. 1. If we receine northat grace in vain wee shall receive a power to inable us, together with the command; and if wee receive the Law, the Word in power, it begets us more then to a meere forme, 2. If. wee receive not that grace in vaine, wee receive a will to obey, fo well as we doe obey; and wee shall obey willingly, though there were no Law nor no curfe. The Christian delights in the command, and so the yoke is easie; they are a willing people in the day, of Gods power, Pfs. 110.3.

and ferueGod not in the oldneffe of the letter, but in the newnes of the Spirit, Rom. 7 6. 3 If wee receive not that grace in vaine, wee shall prize Grace, and make it our endevour to expresse our felvesthankfull. Let it be our care to know the will of God, and to doe it. And because wee shall never performe the Law wel. till the Law be within us. let us challenge of God the Covenant, That bec would write the Law in our inward parts. -

FINIS.

The state of the state of and the second of the second brack the first Es end the transfer to the transfer that Horleson | onion to make 0 140 100 100 4 A D. Malencia . A has Mr. work owed mand bland on the part 31 ela diacher de la confi or wall adjoined by aministrated on a state ented nonallin

HE Analysis of the second Chap. to the Galatians, pag.2,3,&c.

Doct. A man is not infified by the worker of the Law, but by the Faith of Tefus Chrift. Explication of the Dollrine. ibid.

What Iustice is. p 8 What lustification is. p.9 The Explication of the Name. ibid.

| Of the thing it selfe. The nature of lustific | |
|---|-----------|
| The Degrees. The Kindes. | ibid. |
| The falle causes of Inst | ibid. |
| on excluded. Papifts. I enet of Infti | CATION |
| a twofold merit, con | sfuted. |
| The true meritorious of lustification, Chris | ause of |
| How Christ is our Rig | 4.10 29 |
| What Faith is. | ibid. |
| Faith seated both in | 30 |
| fies: 1. Negative | ly. 31 |
| Faith not the me | ritorions |

| canse of our lustifi | cation. |
|--|---|
| [17] [18] [18] [18] [18] [19] [19] [19] [19] [19] [19] [19] [19 | |
| Land inhihera sat of | cauje of |
| Faith Instificth nat be Gods gracious acce | |
| Inflitication by Faith, | caufir- |
| medby Telimon | Lungar |
| medby Testimony. | |
| By Arguments Argui | ALCOHOLD BY THE RESERVE OF THE PARTY OF THE |
| -1 - 7: (-1 | 40,00. |
| The Doctrine of Chris | |
| berty: | 48,00. |
| Liberty divers. | 49 51 |
| Liberty described | 51 |
| What we are freed fro | m. 54 |
| Of Indifferents: | 60 |
| Indifferents twofold; | |
| Men. | 60,61 |
| Constitutions of men t | wo-fold. |
| Politicall , Eccles | Galticatt. |
| Cartellin Dynasa san | 61,62. |
| Conclusions touching | |
| | |
| ture and extent of | |
| rents. | 74. |
| A STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR | The |

| The ends of our freedome, and |
|---|
| of the Doctrine of it: 66 |
| 671,72,73 |
| False someeits of Christian Li. |
| berty. 67 |
| Exhortation to fland fast in |
| our Liberty. 75 Obiestion answered. 79 |
| Exhortation to resource in our |
| |
| Liberty. 80 Argum. 2. Of our Iustifica- |
| tion by Fatth. 91 |
| Atwo-fold absurdity in the |
| tenet of Instification by the |
| Argum . 3. Of Instification by |
| Paith. |
| How farre forth wee may bu |
| angry. |
| Heretical Teachers, bewitch- |
| ers. In our reproofes wee must la- |
| hour to bee both olding and |
| bour to bee both plaine and ples- |
| piea- |

| 1.6 | |
|--|----------------|
| pleasing. Doct. 1. Faith | 6.4.4 |
| Doct. 1. Faith | Jeeth things |
| that are fare | e removed. |
| | Lavara OZ |
| Doct. 2. All on | |
| must be to pain | tout Christ |
| to the people. Argum.4. Of lu | 104 |
| Argum.4. Of In | stification by |
| Faith. | 111 |
| Faith. The absurdity of e | xpecting In- | | stification by the | works of the |
| war. | 112 |
| Law. Argum. 5. Of lu Faith. 11 Argum. 6. | Rification by |
| Faith. 11 | 7,118,00. |
| Argum. 6. | 122 |
| Argam. 7. | 126 |
| Argum. 8. | 129 |
| Six things observ | able: I.Who |
| hath redeemed | dus.2.From |
| whom. 3. Fr | om what. 4. |
| How it was | done. 5. To |
| what end.6.B | what mean. |
| Gal, 2.13. | |
| | Argum. |

| Printer of | |
|--------------------------------|--------------|
| Argum.9. | 134,135 |
| Objection agains | |
| tance being of | promise, an- |
| fivered. | |
| The promises of | |
| Goffell, differ. | 138,139 |
| confirmation in | |
| three-fold. | 140 |
| Application of th | |
| Tuflification by) | |
| Obiettion 1. If w | |
| by Faith onely | |
| Serveth the La | |
| h10:811, 117 | 146 |
| Answered. The use of the La | 149 |
| The wee of the La | p. 152, |
| P. 1 2 - 1 2 | 153,154 |
| Reasons for the c | entinuine of |
| the Law. | 154 |
| Question concern | |
| ration of the Lan | p. 158 |
| | |
| By whom the Law | |
| ned. | 16. |
| | Two |

Two commendations of the 161 6 166 LAW. The inference of the Papifts for the Mediation of Saints and Angels, from the Me diatorship of Moles, confuted. Christ is not a Mediator of one A Mediator what. 173 The cause of disagreement ibid. Twofold Application; I. From the use of the Laws 2. From the continuance of that ufe. The use of the Law two fold: 1. Civill : 2. Spirituall. The Civilluse of the Law, to restraine sinnes. ibid. The Spirituall we so discover the nature of fin to us. 177

The Cone

| | The Conten | 12. |
|-----|---------------------|------------|
| Th | e way to get me | rcy, is to |
| TI | know we need it. | |
| 2 / | seed Sould come | |
| | ded literally and | |
| | ly. | 185 |
| | riettions of an bun | |
| | science. | |
| | the Law: If it be | |
| | gressions, then it | |
| | the Promise. | 192 |
| | he Apostles answer. | |
| To | give life, the San | ne that u |
| | Iustifie. | 195 |
| - | | 1.1.1 |

The Law cannot give life pro ved two wayes.

The Scriptures Shut up under sinne two wayes: 1 By Pro-mises: 2. By the Lav.

198

The extent of the word Concluded.

The

| | dentary uf | e of the |
|-----------|-------------------------|------------|
| Law. | | 201 |
| The divi | ers acception | ns of the |
| word | Faith. | 204 |
| | unto Fait | |
| | unto Chr. | |
| (ignifi | cation. | 2-05. |
| The knon | cation. ledge of thi | s necesta- |
| ry for | two things | ; I. To |
| | hat the Fatt | |
| met wi | thost Faith | ; 2. How |
| Faith | is imputed | 10 us for |
| Right | consnesse. | ibid. |
| | under the | |
| pound | d. | ibid. |
| The righ | t Divine | described |
| from P | fa.147. 11. | 209 |
| | rence of th | |
| ousnes | which is by | the law, |
| and th | at by faith. | 2 11 |
| How the 1 | ewes were d | irected to |
| Christ | y the Law. | 212 |
| How the | Law leades | us, di- |
| | P 2 | - |

| versty expounded. | 213 |
|-----------------------------------|----------|
| The manner of our Sa | |
| there are two Fe | |
| Classes, one under t | |
| the other under the | |
| | 215 |
| Two forts of Schollers | |
| condemned | ibid. |
| condemned. Faith leads us to Chi | rift not |
| | |
| as to a Law giver | 276 |
| to a luftifier. | |
| The Question, How | |
| is abrogated, and | |
| full, discoffed. 2 | 17.00 |
| Some Scriptures see | |
| prove the abrogation | |
| Law; some, that i | |
| abrogated, reconcile | |
| To whom the Law wa | |
| | |
| The causes why the Lan | |
| be abrogated: 1.7 | |
| Gentiles might bee | called: |

2. Be-

2. Because it was an insolerable burthen. 3. Because it was anprofitable : 4. Beit was pernicious. 226,60 Three things signified by the word Law. 230 1. The whole Scriptures, 2. the Bookes of Moses, 3. the padagogie of Moses in his foure last books. The Law as taken for the padagogie of Moses, is not wholly abrogated. ibid Three things in the padigogie of Moses; Promises, Types, and commands. ib. The Law taken for promises and types, abrogated. The law taken for the commands, not abrogated. 232 The generall description of the law, I. from the end. 232 .. 2. from the forme. 233 Law

| Law twofold. I. | Divine, 2. |
|--|---------------|
| Humane. | 233 |
| The Divine La | w considered |
| shree wayes: I | |
| Gd su mone on | inder by |
| sed on mens m | inaes by an | | innate speech: | |
| tiated by spe | |
| tive: 3. Asc | om prehended |
| in writing. | ibid. |
| The more speciall | descriptionof |
| the Law. | |
| The Law written | called Mo- |
| fes law, is the | ee-fold Ma- |
| | |
| rall, Ceremeni | ibid. |
| Toma some of .1. | ibid. |
| Two parts of the | Ceremoniali |
| and Indiciall la | m; Exter- |
| nall, Internall. | ibic. |
| The inward thing | of the Cera |
| moniall law, i | s Faith and |
| Piety. | ibid. |
| The inward thing | of the Indi- |
| cial, mutual love | Co piete ib |
| $ $ 1 Per 19 Per | The |
| the sales of the s | 1.00 |

The Inward things in the Ceremoniall and Indiciall law, are eternall; the outward only abrogated. 235 The Ceremoniall law, what. ibid Theuse of the Ceremonial law three-fold. ibid. 6 236 Abrogated by Christs comming. ibid. By what degrees the Ceremoniall law mas abrogated: I. in truth: 2. in fact. ibid. The Indiciall Law, what.ibi. The ufe of it threefold. The abrogation of it. ibid. The indiciall Law fo far as it is typical abrogated. ibid. The indgement of the indiciall law neither simply forbidden , nor prescibed to any . ibid. Such things as are of common and and generall right in the Indiciall law, are still in force. 238 How we may know them The Morall law what. 238 The Morall law how far forth abrogated. 239 Love, the Substance of the Moibid. rall law. Six Circumstances of the Mo-240,241 rall law. The use of the Morall law, before sinne entred. The use of it under the state of finne, threefold. ibid. Thenfe of it under the state of grace. ibid The Law, the Promife, and the Gospell, considered as opposites. 245 As Subordinates. ibid. The comparison of the law and Gospell, bow they doe agree and and differ. 247.&c. to 256 The comparison of the Promife and Gospell, how they agree and differ. The Obiections of the Iewes, for the continuance of the Ceremoniall and Indiciall law, answered. Against Antinomists and Li. bertines; their Obiections answered. 263 Against Enthusiasts; their false Arguments. 273 Against those that receive not the old Testament. _284 Moses veile, what. 286 Against pure sinlesse Anabap. 288 tists. The Exposition of divers interpreters on those words, Who foever is borne of God, ib. finneth not.

Vse of Exhortation, not to reictshe law. 297
The estate of the law ib.
Three rules to try our Works
by. 304

